Hoffa, Counsel In Bitter Parting

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Teamsters President James R. Hoffa and George S. Fitzgerald, his legal counsel and friend for 27 years, have parted bitterly in the midst of Hoffa's $1-million conspiracy trial.

As the prosecution rested its case Thursday — following six weeks of testimony by 29 witnesses and featuring 263 exhibits — the Detroit News said in a copyrighted article that Hoffa fired Fitzgerald, who is from Detroit.

Fitzgerald's firing, the News said, followed a heated exchange last Monday between the men outside the federal courtroom here.

Fitzgerald, under subpoena as a government witness in Hoffa's trial, told the jury on Monday he swapped his personal check for $15,000 to Hoffa in return for a dividend from Test Fleet, a trucking firm involved in the trial, made out to Hoffa's wife.

Fitzgerald testified the transaction was made at Hoffa's request and that the latter offered no explanation.

The News quoted Hoffa as telling Fitzgerald: "You're all through! Turn in your books and records. And you'd better start thinking about the $75,000 loan."

The News said the loan purportedly had been obtained by Fitzgerald from the Teamsters Central State Conference, of which Hoffa is president.

Fitzgerald, who has been a Teamsters attorney since 1935, is a former Michigan Democratic committeeman.

Hoffa said the Detroit paper was in error and told a newsman: "We didn't fire him, he resigned."

Fitzgerald, in a telephone interview from Detroit, told a newsman for the Nashville Tennessee Thursday night that "there was no talk of resigning at any time," and added: "It happened just like the paper (the Detroit News) said it happened."

As for turning over union books and records, as requested by Hoffa, Fitzgerald said he had neither books nor records.

World Hails Sir Winston's 88th Birthday

LONDON (AP) — Sir Winston Churchill launched his 88th birthday celebration today with a soft-boiled egg and a glass of champagne.

A lifetime late riser, Britain's great wartime leader spent the morning in bed and read the newspapers while the front door bell of his London home kept ringing and ringing.

Messengers brought stacks of telegrams from all over the world and postmen staggered in with pouches stuffed with anniversary greetings. Well-wishers called to sign the visitors' book.

Extra policemen directed the heavy traffic in and out of the quiet dead-end street in which the statesman has his home.

A member of Churchill's staff said they did not expect the old warrior to go out today "but he is very well."

It is just over three months since Sir Winston came home to complete his convalescence from a broken thigh suffered in a fall in a Monte Carlo hotel room.

After a quiet luncheon with Lady Churchill, Sir Winston went to rest this afternoon in preparation for a family party tonight.

Sir Winston's children — Randolph and Diana Churchill, Mrs. Mary Soames and Lady Audley (Sarah Churchill) — were all expected.

U.N. Council Gives Unanimous OK to U Thant

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The U.N. Security Council today recommended unanimously that U Thant of Burma be chosen regular secretary-general of the United Nations to serve until Nov. 3, 1966. The General Assembly was expected to elect Thant this afternoon.

Today's action not only assured the extension of the 53-year-old Burmese diplomat's term for four more years but also dropped the word "acting" which had preceded his title for his past year.

In another vote this morning, the assembly's 110-nation Budgetary Committee recommended that the salary and allowances of the secretary-general be increased by $10,000 from the $55,000 which had been paid since 1946.

The Security Council approved Thant's election at a closed-door session after the United States and the Soviet Union had agreed two days ago to act now. The council resolution was submitted by Ghana on behalf of the six non-permanent members.

Thant's election by the assembly was expected to be unanimous.

The United States and the Soviet Union agreed earlier to give Thant a full five-year term as secretary-general. But on his insistence it will expire Nov. 3, 1966, five years from the date he became acting secretary-general as successor to the late Dag Hammarskjöld.

Hammarskjöld was killed the previous Sept. 17 in a plane crash near Ndola, Northern Rhodesia. Thant, then Burma's chief U.N. delegate, was named to serve the rest of Hammarskjöld's second five-year term, until April 10, 1963.

Besides running the U.N. secretariat of more than 5,000 employees, he has spent much of the past year since in tough negotiations on the problems of West New Guinea, the Congo and Cuba. Friends say that, for personal reasons, he does not want to remain longer than four more years in the U.N. post.

Diplomatic sources report that the major Western powers—for technical reasons—also are opposed to a full new term for Thant.

When Thant was named to succeed Hammarskjöld, the Soviets insisted that he be titled acting secretary-general because they were on record in favor of replacing the secretary-general eventually by a three-man "troika" board.

The Americans disliked the acting designation but went along to get the vacancy filled.

The Soviets have not publicly withdrawn their proposal for a three-man secretary-generalship, originally made by Premier Khrushchev here in 1960. But they no longer mention it.

Cleveland's Two Major Papers Hit By Teamster Strike

CLEVELAND (AP) — Cleveland's two major daily newspapers — the morning Plain Dealer and the afternoon Press and News — ceased publication today following a surprise Teamsters Union Strike against them.

The strike was called Thursday night by Teamsters Local 473 as the climax of a contract dispute with the newspapers. Picket lines were strung around the buildings of both publishing firms.

The Plain Dealer was published, but the newspaper went undelivered. A reduced run of 12,000 papers was sold in the lobby of the building. No further publication is planned until the strike is settled.

The Press and News had felt there was a possibility of publishing today. But in mid-morning, Editor Louis B. Seltzer said: "We are not going to attempt to publish. We don't want to risk the injury to any human being that might occur or cause a civic disturbance. A good many of our employees reported to work."

Both newspapers and the union agreed to a summons from federal Mediator Gilbert Seldin to resume negotiations. A meeting was set up in Seldin's office at 3:30 p.m. A return to the bargaining table so soon after the strike started was taken in some quarters as a hopeful sign.

Thomas V. H. Vail, vice president of the Forest City Publishing Co., publisher of the Plain Dealer, notified Plain Dealer employees that publication of the newspaper would be discontinued until the strike is settled.

A Plain Dealer official said the strike came as a surprise after a day of quiet negotiations and expressed hope the strike would end as suddenly as it began.

OEA Calls for Legal Action Against State Control Board

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Education Association has opened its annual convention by calling for legal action against the State Board of Control and adopting a 27-point legislative program.

The 1,000 delegates unanimously adopted a resolution Thursday condemning the Board of Control for failing to pay $12.5 million to the Ohio Teachers Retirement System.

"We believe the state government not only has acted illegally but also has discriminated against the public school teachers of Ohio," the resolution stated.

"We call upon the boards of the State Teachers Retirement System and the School Employees legal action to compel the State Board of Control to comply with the law and make immediate payment of funds due the two retirement systems."

Executive Secretary L. D. Shuter of the Teachers Retirement systems or by the Ohio School Boards Association.

He explained that appropriations are made to the foundation program and payments to the retirement systems are taken from those funds.

"We have had assurance that these payments to the retirement systems will be made in about three weeks," Shuter said.

"The delay is not without precedent. The systems will receive their money. The situation will not in any way affect payments of monthly benefits to retired members."

The administration earlier Thursday borrowed $23 million from the liquor lottery fund to help make up a $43 million deficit in the quarterly school foundation payment. The Controlling Board released the funds for the quarterly payments with a promise that about $15 million needed for the two retirement systems would be paid next month.

The OEA resolution said it was the third time in the last 12 months that the state government has failed to pay monies due the retirement systems on time because of insufficient funds in the state treasury.

The resolution also denounced reports that officials of the retirement funds had agreed to wait until next month to get the $15 million. The measure said that the alleged agreement, if true, "represents a dereliction of responsibility on the part of the officials of the retirement systems."

The resolution was strengthened by two of the legislative goals (Continued on Page 14)

No Progress Evidenced in Other Issues

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy and Soviet First Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan have agreed that the United States and the Soviet Union will continue negotiations for a final settlement of the Cuban crisis.

But their lengthy White House conference failed to yield any agreement of progress toward agreement on other critical East-West issues.

The President and Mikoyan met for more than three hours late Thursday. U.S. officials had hoped the meeting would produce evidence of change in Soviet policies on arms control, or other global problems, in the wake of the crisis over Cuba.

In this hope, they were apparently disappointed.

White House sources said that from the U.S. point of view the meeting did not provide any surprises—that Mikoyan's discussion of Soviet policies produced nothing of a new or different character.

Mikoyan, who just spent three weeks in Cuba, told reporters as he left the President's office shortly before 8 o'clock Thursday night.

"We had an exchange of views with the President on questions of interest to both our countries, chiefly about Cuba. As a result of this conversation, we agreed to issue certain instructions to our representatives in New York — we to our negotiators, and the President will instruct his negotiators — to continue negotiations to finally settle the Cuban question."

Pierre Salinger, White House press secretary, said the two men had agreed "that, as a followup of this meeting, the conversations would continue in New York between Ambassador Stevenson, Mr. McCloy and Mr. Kuznetsov."

Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson and John J. McCloy have been negotiating with Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily V. Kuznetsov for several weeks on specific problems involved in easing the U.S.-Soviet confrontation over the installation of Soviet offensive missiles in Cuba.

While no details of the conversation were made public, Kennedy presumably emphasized to Mikoyan two main points about the U.S. attitude toward Cuba.

1. That until some kind of on the spot inspection is provided, the United States will continue aerial surveillance over the island.

2. That even though Soviet missiles have been removed, the United States strongly objects to any use of Cuba as a military base by the Soviet Union.

The Soviet Union still has thousands of military technicians and troop units in Cuba and a number of short-range missile bases, including 24 anti-aircraft missile installations, which Kennedy would like to have dismantled.

Boss Trained Lady Militia

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — An official of a private telephone company, who trained his women employees to be commandos, faces arraignment today on charges of possessing unregistered automatic weapons.

John Snook, 43, a wiry, bachelor with a Van Dyke beard, has been free on $500 bond since he surrendered recently to U.S. marshals. He has declined comment on the charge.

U.S. Treasury agents seized eight automatic weapons from Snook on March 19. He had used the guns in training 23 women employees of the family-owned Gulf Telephone Co., Foley, Ala., as commandos. Snook is vice president of the company.

Federal agents seized the guns because they were not registered as required by law.

Snook said he conceived the idea of his women's militia in 1948 and expanded it after a number of the company's male employees were called to active duty during the Korean War.

"The theory behind the program was that a 1A woman can do more than a 4F man," he said.

The cigar-smoking Snook fitted the girls in black, military-type uniforms, gave them rifles, and drilled them in military fashion. He trained them in firing small rockets—built under his supervision—and handling heavy telephone equipment.

New Organization Plan Being Readied

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department says the controversial reorganization plan for Army National Guard and Reserves will come out in final form probably next week, without major changes.

The plan, proposed by the Army last spring and supported by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, consists mainly of breaking up eight infantry divisions, setting up streamlined brigade organizations in their stead and dropping about 730 company-size units which are considered obsolete.

The proposal aroused strong opposition from many governors and some influential members of Congress.

A Pentagon spokesman said Thursday consultations are still going on with governors and Congress members, but it was understood the talks center on ironing out details.

Football To Interfere With Santa's Activity

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Football is going to interfere with Santa Claus in Birmingham Saturday.

India Claims Red Charges are False

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — India denied today Red Chinese charges that it engaged in armed provocations by rushing troops to Himalayan borderlands as the deadline approached for a promised Communist withdrawal.

The Chinese said they were watching the situation closely but an authoritative source here said the Indian government had received indications the Communists planned to go through with their withdrawal Saturday, Peking time, as they announced with their self-imposed cease-fire nine days ago.

India has not yet accepted Red China's proposals for the withdrawal.

It has been sending reinforcements by land and air into the crucial northeastern sector of the battlefield since the cease-fire went into effect.

India's hand has been strengthened, for the time being at least, by a lessening of pressure in its dispute with Pakistan over Kashmir.

Prime Minister Nehru and President Mohammed Ayub Khan have agreed to negotiate their 15-year dispute but the going may be rough.

The agreement, however, will allow India to breathe easier as it pulls troops away from the Pakistan border to face the Red Chinese.

Peking said it would withdraw its troops 12½ miles behind what it called the line of actual control in November 1959. India doesn't go along because it would leave the Red Chinese still on territory claimed by India.

It has sent off a second note to Peking seeking further clarification of the Chinese proposals. A first request brought what an Indian Foreign Ministry spokesman called a vague reply.

The spokesman said India wants restoration of the positions both armies held last Sept. 8, before the Chinese swept into northeastern India and threatened its rich and fertile state of Assam.

Nehru and Ayub Khan are expected eventually to get together on the Kashmir issue but first lesser officials are to lay the groundwork.

Nehru indicated today he was prepared to retreat little if any from his position.

Pontiff Making Good Recovery

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope John XXIII is making a good recovery, with medical treatment "obtaining the hoped for results" in his battle against anemia, a Vatican communiqué said today.

The 81-year-old pontiff got out of his sick bed briefly again this morning and "occupied himself with some problems regarding the government of the Church, giving the relative dispositions," the statement added.

It was the second time he had been able to get up since he was stricken Tuesday.

Vatican sources said the Pope's doctor was concerned, however, that he was rushing things in his determination to get back to work.

"As soon as he feels a bit better, he wants to get out of bed," Dr. Antonio Gasbarrini was quoted as saying. "It is difficult to keep him there."

There were widespread—but unconfirmed—reports the Pope has a stomach ulcer.

Dr. Gasbarrini was quoted by the Milan paper Il Giorno as denying "speculation the Pope suffers from cancer of the prostate."

Dr. Gasbarrini, 80, was quoted as explaining about the pontiff's condition:

"Certainly he is prostatic. Everybody is at his age, including me. But there is absolutely no cancer."

Il Giorno also said Gasbarrini denied that surgery was contemplated. There have been reports in Rome papers—and among sources at the Ecumenical Council of prelates meeting in Rome—that the Pope might have to be operated on for a long-troublesome prostate condition.

Wildcat Strike Hits GM Plant

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — A wildcat strike has idled all but 400 of the 3,000 employees at the General Motors Corp. Chevrolet transmission plant.

Both company and union officials called the walkout unauthorized.

The strike started when about 25 toolroom employees walked off their jobs in protest to the disciplining of a fellow worker, who had been involved in a dispute with a foreman.

A picket line was posted Thursday, but day shift workers ignored the picket line and reported for work. However, the 1,200 - employee second shift did not cross the line, halting production.

Tom Russell, secretary of United Auto Worker Local 14, said the walkout was unauthorized and attempted to get the striking workers to return to their jobs at a membership meeting Thursday night. Another meeting was scheduled for tonight.

Only 400 day-shift workers reported to their job today.

U.N. Adviser Due for Trip To Katanga

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Acting Secretary-General U Thant sends his chief military adviser to the Congo today to tighten pressure on Katanga President Moïse Tshombe and try to end the secession of the province.

Thant ordered Brig. I. J. Rikhye to relay to the U. N. Congo Command his new tough policy against Tshombe and to bolster the U.N.'s military position in the rebellious province.

Rikhye was to consult with U.N. field commander on deployment a new planes, anti-aircraft units and ground troops that U.N. members have offered to help beef up the U.N. military force in the Congo. Italy is sending four jet fighter planes to the Congo. Sweden has offered four fighters and two reconnaissance planes.

Rikhye, an Indian, also planned to go to New Delhi to seek retention of some 5,500 Indian troops, the largest contingent in the U.N. force of 18,000 men. India has said they may have to be pulled out to help in the fight against Communist China.

Thant made clear he is embarking on a tougher policy toward Tshombe in a lengthy report to the Security Council. It called for such measures as a U.N. boycott of Katanga's copper and cobalt export, a transport blockade and suspension of mail and wire communications.

Thant's report was issued in the wake of moves by the United States and Belgium to strengthen his hand in dealing with the provincial leader. The two nations affirmed that severe economic pressures will be exerted against Tshombe if he continues to balk at Thant's plan.

Traffic Toll Stands At New Record High

CHICAGO (AP) — The nation's traffic death toll in the first 10 months this year—33,430—was a record high for any similar period.

The National Safety Council said the deaths, averaging 110 a day, compared to 30,720 for the first 10 months in 1961, an increase of 9 per cent. The previous record for the period was 32,357 highway deaths in 1957.

As a result of this conversation, we agreed to issue certain instructions to our representatives in New York — we to our negotiators, and the President will instruct their negotiators — to continue negotiations to finally settle the Cuban question."

Pierre Salinger, White House press secretary, said the two men had agreed "that, as a followup of this meeting, the conversations would continue in New York between Ambassador Stevenson, Mr. McCloy and Mr. Kuznetsov."

Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson and John J. McCloy have been negotiating with Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily V. Kuznetsov for several weeks on specific problems involved in easing the U.S.-Soviet confrontation over the installation of Soviet offensive missiles in Cuba.

While no details of the conversation were made public, Kennedy presumably emphasized to Mikoyan two main points about the U.S. attitude toward Cuba.

1. That until some kind of on the spot inspection is provided, the United States will continue aerial surveillance over the island.

2. That even though Soviet missiles have been removed, the United States strongly objects to any use of Cuba as a military base by the Soviet Union.

The Soviet Union still has thousands of military technicians and troop units in Cuba and a number of short-range missile bases, including 24 anti-aircraft missile installations, which Kennedy would like to have dismantled.

Mikoyan was scheduled to have lunch with Secretary of State Dean Rusk and other officials at the State Department today and one tonight with Secretary of the Interior Stewart Udall, who recently visited the Soviet Union.

Traffic Toll Stands At New Record High

CHICAGO (AP) — The nation's traffic death toll in the first 10 months this year—33,430—was a record high for any similar period.

The National Safety Council said the deaths, averaging 110 a day, compared to 30,720 for the first 10 months in 1961, an increase of 9 per cent. The previous record for the period was 32,357 highway deaths in 1957.

Rate Hike Requested

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio Valley Gas Co. asked the utilities commission today for authority to raise its natural gas rates in East Liverpool.

The company said the rates it is suggesting would result in an approximate increase of 18 per cent for the average customer.

India Claims Red Charges are False

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—India denied today Red Chinese charges that it engaged in armed provocations by rushing troops to Himalayan borderlands as the deadline approached for a promised Communist withdrawal.

The Chinese said they were watching the situation closely but an authoritative source here said the Indian government had received indications the Communists planned to go through with their withdrawal Saturday, Peking time, as they announced with their self-imposed cease-fire nine days ago.

India has not yet accepted Red China's proposals for the withdrawal.

It has been sending reinforcements by land and air into the crucial northeastern sector of the battlefield since the cease-fire went into effect.

India's hand has been strengthened, for the time being at least, by a lessening of pressure in its dispute with Pakistan over Kashmir.

Prime Minister Nehru and President Mohammed Ayub Khan have agreed to negotiate their 15-year dispute but the going may be rough.

The agreement, however, will allow India to breathe easier as it pulls troops away from the Pakistan border to face the Red Chinese.

Peking said it would withdraw its troops 12½ miles behind what it called the line of actual control in November 1959. India doesn't go along because it would leave the Red Chinese still on territory claimed by India.

It has sent off a second note to Peking seeking further clarification of the Chinese proposals. A first request brought what an Indian Foreign Ministry spokesman called a vague reply.

The spokesman said India wants restoration of the positions both armies held last Sept. 8, before the Chinese swept into northeastern India and threatened its rich and fertile state of Assam.

Nehru and Ayub Khan are expected eventually to get together on the Kashmir issue but first lesser officials are to lay the groundwork.

Nehru indicated today he was prepared to retreat little if any from his position.

U.N. Adviser Due for Trip To Katanga

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Acting Secretary-General U Thant sends his chief military adviser to the Congo today to tighten pressure on Katanga President Moise Tshombe and try to end the secession of the province.

Thant ordered Brig. I. J. Rikhye to relay to the U.N. Congo Command his new tough policy against Tshombe and to bolster the U.N.'s military position in the rebellious province.

Rikhye was to consult with U.N. field commander on deployment a new planes, anti-aircraft units and ground troops that U.N. members have offered to help beef up the U.N. military force in the Congo. Italy is sending four jet fighter planes to the Congo. Sweden has offered four fighters and two reconnaissance planes.

Rikhye, an Indian, also planned to go to New Delhi to seek retention of some 5,500 Indian troops, the largest contingent in the U.N. force of 18,000 men. India has said they may have to be pulled out to help in the fight against Communist China.

Thant made clear he is embarking on a tougher policy toward Tshombe in a lengthy report to the Security Council. It called for such measures as a U.N. boycott of Katanga's copper and cobalt export, a transport blockade and suspension of mail and wire communications.

Thant's report was issued in the wake of moves by the United States and Belgium to strengthen his hand in dealing with the provincial leader. The two nations affirmed that severe economic pressures will be exerted against Tshombe if he continues to balk at Thant's plan.

Hoffa, Counsel In Bitter Parting

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Teamsters President James R. Hoffa and George S. Fitzgerald, his legal counsel and friend for 27 years, have parted bitterly in the midst of Hoffa's $1-million conspiracy trial.

As the prosecution rested its case Thursday — following six weeks of testimony by 29 witnesses and featuring 263 exhibits — the Detroit News said in a copyrighted article that Hoffa fired Fitzgerald, who is from Detroit.

Fitzgerald's firing, the News said, followed a heated exchange last Monday between the men outside the federal courtroom here.

Fitzgerald, under subpoena as a government witness in Hoffa's trial, told the jury on Monday he swapped his personal check for $15,000 to Hoffa in return for a dividend from Test Fleet, a trucking firm involved in the trial, made out to Hoffa's wife.

Fitzgerald testified the transaction was made at Hoffa's request and that the latter offered no explanation.

The News quoted Hoffa as telling Fitzgerald: "You're all through! Turn in your books and records. And you'd better start thinking about the $75,000 loan."

The News said the loan purportedly had been obtained by Fitzgerald from the Teamsters Central State Conference, of which Hoffa is president.

Fitzgerald, who has been a Teamsters attorney since 1935, is a former Michigan Democratic committeeman.

Hoffa said the Detroit paper was in error and told a newsman: "We didn't fire him, he resigned."

Fitzgerald, in a telephone interview from Detroit, told a newsman for the Nashville Tennessean Thursday night that "there was no talk of resigning at any time," and added: "It happened just like the paper (The Detroit News) said it happened."

As for turning over union books and records, as requested by Hoffa, Fitzgerald said he had neither books nor records. "I talked with him (Hoffa) twice after that," Fitzgerald said, (Continued on Page 2)

World Hails Sir Winston's 88th Birthday

LONDON (AP) — Sir Winston Churchill launched his 88th birthday celebration today with a soft-boiled egg and a glass of champagne.

A lifetime late riser, Britain's great wartime leader spent the morning in bed and read the newspapers while the front door bell of his London home kept ringing and ringing.

Messengers brought stacks of telegrams from all over the world and postmen staggered in with pouches stuffed with anniversary greetings. Well-wishers called to sign the visitors' book.

Extra policemen directed the heavy traffic in and out of the quiet dead-end street in which the statesman has his home.

A member of Churchill's staff said they did not expect the old warrior to "go out today" but he is very well.

It is just over three months since Sir Winston came home to complete his convalescence from a broken thigh suffered in a fall in a Monte Carlo hotel room.

After a quiet luncheon with Lady Churchill, Sir Winston was to rest this afternoon in preparation for a family party tonight.

Slayer Shows No Remorse

LANSING, Kan. (AP) — Lowell Lee Andrews, the "model boy" who said greed led him to murder his family four years ago, died on the gallows today. If he repented his crime, he didn't show it.

Calm and composed, even a bit aloof, Andrews stood silently on the gallows trap, lighted by the glare of a single unshaded bulb.

Warden Sherman H. Crouse asked if he had any last words. "No, I don't believe so," replied the 22-year-old killer, smiling slightly.

The warden repeated the question.

"No," Andrews said flatly.

The Protestant chaplain of the State Penitentiary, the Rev. James Post, removed Andrews' glasses. Guards slipped the noose around his neck; the death mask over his face.

At 12:21 a.m., the trap covering a hole in the concrete floor of the execution chamber—a corner of a rambling prison warehouse—was sprung. Fifteen minutes later, Andrews was pronounced dead by the prison physician. He was the 11th man to die since Kansas resumed capital punishment in the 1920s.

In his stated confessions, Andrews said he killed his father, mother and sister because he wanted his father's 240-acre farm and $1,800 in a savings account.

But the utterly senseless violence of his crime cast doubt upon this motive. Using two guns, Andrews fired 24 shots. Seventeen bullets hit his father William Andrews, 50. His mother, Onel, 41, was shot four times. His sister, Jennie Marie, 20, was hit three times.

EUB Youth Take Tour of Dayton Area

The Youth Fellowship of the First EUB Church recently took a tour of denominational points of interest in the Dayton area.

First stop was at the Otterbein Press bookstore. A conducted tour of the First Church now under construction, was found most interesting by the group. The guide told the group that when the church is completed over one million dollars will have gone into construction.

The group then visited the United Theological Seminary where they visited classrooms and the new Breyfogle Memorial Chapel on the campus.

Next stop was at the new EUB Administration offices where a tour was taken through the many offices.

The last place the group visited was the Troy Street Church. This was the church that the Rev. O. F. Gibbs, pastor of the Circleville Church, was stationed prior to his local assignment and while he was a student.

Those participating in the trip were: Dwight Beadle, Judy Faun, D. A. N. Gibbs, Branson Hawkes, Charles Hurley, Jill Jenkins, Bob McNeely, Regina Parks, Janice Perdon, Steve Richardson, Ruthanne Seibel, Gary Stewart, Jerry Stewart, Amelia Thomas, Shirley Thomas, Davis Thomas, Richard Thomas, David Tomlinson, Bob Young and Jerry Young.

Adults accompanying the group were the Rev. and Mrs. O. F. Gibbs, Dick Beadle, Roy Seibel, Mrs. David Steele, Mrs. Mary Tomlinson, and the youth director, Mrs. Verneal Thomas.

Local Man Rescued from Sewer Cave-In

Quick thinking of a Circleville man Wednesday saved Kelly Neal, 45, of 433 S. Court St., from possible death in a sewer cave-in at the construction site of a shopping center near Chillicothe.

Leonard Boyssel, 35, also of Circleville, dug the earth from the upper portions of Neal's body a few minutes after the cave-in, according to Ross County Deputies.

Other workers joined in to free Neal from the cave-in area. He was taken to Chillicothe Hospital where he received emergency treatment. Deputies said Neal suffered contusions of the chest and pelvis.

Neal was in a standing position in the six-foot deep ditch when the cave-in occurred. Boyssel freed him down as far as his stomach when other workers came to the rescue.

Hoffa

and he repeated it (the firing). Hoffa said the union had "made certain requests of Mr. Fitzgerald and that 'rather than comply he severed his relations with the union.'"

As for Hoffa's statements about his resigning, Fitzgerald told the Detroit Free Press Thursday night, they were "strictly a fabrication—garbage."

Hoffa said he had told all union lawyers—not just Fitzgerald—they would have to drop some of their clients and if necessary spend their full time with the union.

Fitzgerald said Hoffa fired him "because I think he was displeased with my testimony. But the testimony was the truth to the best of my recollection. And I was sworn to tell the truth."

Hoffa said Fitzgerald's resignation had been under discussion for several weeks and that he received Fitzgerald's resignation in the mail Thursday.

Fitzgerald further told newsmen Thursday night in Detroit:

"I didn't speak up before because I was afraid I might prejudice the case. But I can't keep quiet any longer."

In the current trial, Hoffa, 49, is accused of conspiring with a Detroit automobile transport firm, Commercial Carriers, Inc., to violate the Taft-Hartley Act by accepting concealed payments as a payoff for labor peace with Hoffa's 1.5-million-member union. The prosecution further contends that Commercial Carriers, to keep labor peace in 1948, created a truck leasing firm known at first as Test Fleet, and assigned half the stock to Mrs. Hoffa—and after that there were no more labor difficulties.

Distribution of Test Fleet's profits, a key issue in the case, brought a number of bankers, stock brokers and auditors to the witness stand this week as the government sought to link the profit distribution to Hoffa.

Th trial is being heard by U.S. Dist. Judge William E. Miller and a jury of six men and six women. The defense will start its trial presentation on Monday.

Hoffa's attorneys have told the jury that Test Fleet's operations were perfectly legal and that they would prove the labor leader never received a penny from its truck lease business.

Test Fleet, later called the Hobbs Corp., was chartered in Nashville in 1949, with its stock listed in the maiden names of Mrs. Hoffa and Mrs. Owen (Bert) Brennan, wife of a Teamster official who died in 1960. Brennan, a longtime associate of Hoffa, was the Teamsters international vice president.

If convicted on the two-count indictment, Hoffa could receive a maximum sentence of one year in prison and a fine of $10,000 on each charge.

City Police Posts Vacant

The Circleville Municipal Civil Service Commission will hold an examination on December 17 to fill an eligible list for patrolmen of the Police Department.

The exams will be given to fill vacancies left by the recent resignations of Patrolmen Jay Curry and Gerald Goldsberry.

Blank applications may be obtained at the Commission Office in the City Building or from any member of the Commission. Applications must be returned not later than 4 p. m., December 13.

Applications for patrolman must be resident voters of Pickaway County and between the ages of 21 and 31 years and in good physical condition. Other qualifications are listed on application forms.

The starting salary for city patrolmen is $330 per month, two weeks vacation with pay, two weeks sick leave with pay and retirement benefits.

Further information may be obtained from Tom A. Renick, Luther Bower and V. L. Hawkes.

FBI Talks To Youngster About Bombing

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—FBI agents have talked to 12-year-old Charles Cavallaro Jr., but the FBI declined to say what, if anything, was learned about the bombing last week that killed the boy's father and his 11-year-old brother, Thomas.

Edward E. Hargett, special agent in charge of the Cleveland FBI office who is leading the FBI investigation, would say only that his men had talked with the boy Thursday at his room in St. Elizabeth Hospital.

"Under no circumstances will we release any of the information we receive from anyone in this investigation," Hargett declared.

Charles (Cadillac Charlie) Cavallaro Sr., 60, touched off the bomb when he stepped on the starter in his booby-trapped automobile last Friday. The two boys were with him in the car.

Neighbors say Charles Jr. does not remember much about the bombing. His room at the hospital is under police guard, and only close relatives are allowed to visit.

Youngstown Mayor Harry N. Savatens was in Washington Thursday for conferences concerning the bombing that killed Cavallaro and his son.

No Progress

Mikoyan is due to leave Saturday for Moscow.

The White House conference was a small gathering. On the U.S. side, in addition to Kennedy, were Rusk and Llewellyn Thompson, an administration adviser on Soviet affairs who recently completed several years as U.S. ambassador to Moscow. Mikoyan was accompanied by Soviet Ambassador Anatoly Dobrynin. Each side had two interpreters present. Mikoyan spoke in Russian.

U. S. officials said Cuba was the dominant subject of the conference, but they described the discussion as wide-ranging. On specific points, they said there was a passing reference to the situation in the Southeast Asian country of Laos, some talk of disarmament, including nuclear testing, but no talk at all of Berlin.

While Kennedy had planned to deal with Cuba as the central issue of the meeting, he was also reported to believe that the session was a good opportunity for diplomatic probing about the possibility of a breakthrough on deadlocked issues, such as nuclear testing.

He apparently felt that if Soviet Premier Khrushchev wants to work toward an improvement in U.S.-Soviet relations, Mikoyan might throw out some hints to that effect.

The emphasis which White House sources placed on the lack of anything new in Mikoyan's presentation made clear that this had not happened.

County Health Board To Discuss TB Tests

The Pickaway County Board of Health was to meet this afternoon at 2 p. m.

One of the items to be discussed was the reconsideration of the possibility of giving tuberculosis skin tests to county students. In earlier action the Board felt that the program would prove to be too expensive and ruled against it.

TB tests were available with parental consent, to all Circleville students.

The fighting in the remote borderlands of the high Himalayas directly involves 40 per cent of the world population. One out of every four members of the human race lives in Communist China; one out of seven lives in India.

on Kashmir with anybody." Nehru told Parliament he was not committed to a partition of disputed Kashmir as a basis of settlement and could not "bypass or ignore our basic principles."

Any "upset of the present arrangement would be very harmful to the people of Kashmir as well as to future relations between India and Pakistan," he added.

The present arrangement is a partition by a cease-fire line which has been in effect for 13 years under U.N. watch.

Nehru consented to the talks under the pressure of the Red Chinese offensive which broke through India's Himalayan frontiers.

A joint Indian-Pakistan communique announcing the talks was issued as Red China charged India with conducting provocative troop movements up to the Himalayan cease-fire line.

The Chinese charge, made on the eve of the Saturday deadline set by Peking for a pullback of its troops, raised prospects of fresh fighting instead of a Chinese retreat.

The prospective Indian-Pakistan negotiations eased India's necessity, at least for the time, of keeping the bulk of her troops on guard against Pakistan during an undeclared border war with China. Already a squadron of American Hercules transports has transferred thousands of Indian troops from Pakistan's borders to the endangered Northeast.

Duncan Sandys, British Commonwealth relations secretary, took the lead in arranging the negotiations when he flew from New Delhi to Rawalpindi, the Pakistani capital, on Tuesday. U.S. Assistant Secretary of State W. Averell Harriman brought word Wednesday from New Delhi to Rawalpindi of Nehru's readiness to talk.

Sandys, Harriman and Ayub Khan roughed out the announcement of the negotiations at Ayub Khan's dinner table Wednesday night. Sandys flew to New Delhi with it at 5 a. m. Thursday for Nehru's approval.

The announcement said ministers of the two governments would negotiate first and Nehru and Ayub Khan would meet "at the appropriate stage." No date was announced for the start of the talks.

In their talks with Ayub Khan, Harriman and Sandys drove home the point that India and Pakistan as neighbors on the Indian subcontinent share a common peril from Chinese aggression.

Ayub Khan has been under pressure from many of the deputies to break off Pakistan's ties with the pro-Western CENTO and SEATO alliances because of the rush of the United States and Britain to build up Indian arsenals. Pakistani critics charge the rapid-fire guns and other weapons eventually will be turned against Pakistan.

Kashmir is the key issue. The ruling Hindu maharajah of Kashmir, whose 3½ million people are 77 per cent Moslem, decided to join Hindu India in 1947. But Pakistan troops and irregulars invaded the Himalayan border state, and Indians and Pakistanis soon were fighting an undeclared war.

Since 1949 U.N. observers have been on watch to uphold a cease-fire, with India in possession of about two-thirds of the country, including Ladakh which is now mostly occupied by the Red Chinese.

K of P States Second Nomination

Philos Lodge No. 64, Knights of Pythias, will conduct its second nomination and election of officers for the coming year at 8 p. m. Monday during the regular business session.

Election of Grand Lodge officers will also be held during the meeting. Past chancellors of the local lodge are eligible to vote in the Grand Lodge elections.

Two States Get Governors Three Weeks after Election

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two states have finally chosen governors, more than three weeks after the Nov. 6 election. But the winners' slender victory margins could be overturned in recounts.

Rhode Island became the latest state to pick a winner when, early today, absentee ballots gave the nod to Republican John H. Chafee over Democratic Gov. John A. Notte Jr. who sought a second two-year term. The final unofficial count put Chafee ahead by 398 votes.

There was no immediate word whether Notte would seek a recount.

But in another close gubernatorial election — in Minnesota — attorneys for Lt. Gov. Karl Rolvaag, a Democrat, were preparing recount petitions. They have 10 days in which to challenge the State Canvassing Board official certification Thursday of Republican Gov. Elmer L. Andersen as winner of another term.

The board acted on the order of the Minnesota Supreme Court which held that the board must count revised figures from 10 of the state's 87 counties. Those figures gave Andersen a 142-vote edge. Without the revisions, Rolvaag would have won by 58 votes. Recounts proceeded today in two other states.

With one-third of Massachusetts' 2,011 precincts recounted through Thursday, Democrat Endicott Peabody has picked up a net of 689 votes and upped his unofficial lead over Republican Gov. John A. Volpe, bidding for a second term, to 3,780 votes.

In South Dakota, Democrat George McGovern advanced to a 481-vote lead as 50 of the state's 67 counties completed a recount Thursday in his Senate battle with Republican Sen. Joe Bottom. McGovern held a slim lead after the first count and it has slowly widened during the recount.

Chafee, a state representative, became the only Republican to win a major state office in Rhode Island with his victory.

and he repeated it (the firing)."
Hoffa said the union had "made certain requests of Mr. Fitzgerald and that "rather than comply he severed his relations with the union."

As for Hoffa's statements about his resigning, Fitzgerald told the Detroit Free Press Thursday night, they were "strictly a fabrication—garbage."

Hoffa said he had told all union lawyers—not just Fitzgerald—they would have to drop some of their clients and if necessary spend their full time with the union.

Fitzgerald said Hoffa fired him "because I think he was displeased with my testimony. But the testimony was the truth to the best of my recollection. And I was sworn to tell the truth."

Hoffa said Fitzgerald's resignation had been under discussion for several weeks and that he received Fitzgerald's resignation in the mail Thursday.

Fitzgerald further told newsmen Thursday night in Detroit:

"I didn't speak up before because I was afraid I might prejudice the case. But I can't keep quiet any longer."

In the current trial, Hoffa, 49, is accused of conspiring with a Detroit automobile transport firm, Commercial Carriers, Inc., to violate the Taft-Hartley Act by accepting concealed payments as a payoff for labor peace with Hoffa's 1.5-million-member union. The prosecution further contends that Commercial Carriers, to keep labor peace in 1948, created a truck leasing firm known at first as Test Fleet, and assigned half the stock to Mrs. Hoffa—and after that there were no more labor difficulties.

Distribution of Test Fleet's profits, a key issue in the case, brought a number of bankers, stock brokers and auditors to the witness stand this week as the government sought to link the profit distribution to Hoffa.

His trial is being heard by U.S. Dist. Judge William E. Miller and a jury of six men and six women. The defense will start its trial presentation on Monday.

Hoffa's attorneys have told the jury that Test Fleet's operations were perfectly legal and that they would prove the labor leader never received a penny from its truck lease business.

Test Fleet, later called the Hobren Corp., was chartered in Nashville in 1949, with its stock listed in the maiden names of Mrs. Hoffa and Mrs. Owen (Bert) Brennan, wife of a Teamster official who died in 1960. Brennan, a longtime associate of Hoffa, was the Teamsters international vice president.

If convicted on the two-count indictment, Hoffa could receive a maximum sentence of one year in prison and a fine of $10,000 on each charge.

City Police Posts Vacant

The Circleville Municipal Civil Service Commission will hold an examination on December 17 to fill an eligible list for patrolmen of the Police Department.

The exams will be given to fill vacancies left by the recent resignations of Patrolmen Jay Curry and Gerald Goldsberry.

Blank applications may be obtained at the Commission Office in the City Building or from any member of the Commission. Applications must be returned not later than 4 p. m., December 13.

Applications for patrolman must be resident voters of Pickaway County and between the ages of 21 and 31 years and in good physical condition. Other qualifications are listed on application forms.

The starting salary for city patrolmen is $330 per month, two weeks vacation with pay, two weeks sick leave with pay and retirement benefits.

Further information may be obtained from Tom A. Renick, Luther Bower and V. L. Hawkes.

FBI Talks To Youngster About Bombing

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—FBI agents have talked to 12-year-old Charles Cavallaro Jr., but the FBI declined to say what, if anything, was learned about the bombing last week that killed the boy's father and his 11-year-old brother, Thomas.

Edward E. Hargett, special agent in charge of the Cleveland FBI office who is leading the FBI investigation, would say only that his men had talked with the boy Thursday at his room in St. Elizabeth Hospital.

"Under no circumstances will we release any of the information we receive from anyone in this investigation," Hargett declared.

Charles (Cadillac Charlie) Cavallaro Sr., 60, touched off the bomb when he stepped on the starter in his booby-trapped automobile last Friday. The two boys were with him in the car.

Neighbors say Charles Jr. does not remember much about the bombing. His room at the hospital is under police guard, and only close relatives are allowed to visit.

Youngstown Mayor Harry N. Savatenski was in Washington Thursday for conferences concerning the bombing that killed Cavallaro and his son.

No Progress

Mikoyan is due to leave Saturday for Moscow.

The White House conference was a small gathering. On the U.S. side, in addition to Kennedy, were Rusk and Llewellyn Thompson, an administration adviser on Soviet affairs who recently completed several years as U.S. ambassador to Moscow. Mikoyan was accompanied by Soviet Ambassador Anatoly Dobrynin. Each side had two interpreters present. Mikoyan spoke in Russian.

U. S. officials said Cuba was the dominant subject of the conference, but they described the discussion as wide-ranging. On specific points, they said there was a passing reference to the situation in the Southeast Asian country of Laos, some talk of disarmament, including nuclear testing, but no talk at all of Berlin.

While Kennedy had planned to deal with Cuba as the central issue of the meeting, he was also reported to believe that the session was a good opportunity for diplomatic probing about the possibility of a breakthrough on deadlocked issues, such as nuclear testing.

He apparently felt that if Soviet Premier Khrushchev wants to work toward an improvement in U.S.-Soviet relations, Mikoyan might throw out some hints to that effect.

The emphasis which White House sources placed on the lack of anything new in Mikoyan's presentation made clear that this had not happened.

County Health Board To Discuss TB Tests

The Pickaway County Board of Health was to meet this afternoon at 2 p. m.

One of the items to be discussed was the reconsideration of the possibility of giving tuberculosis skin tests to county students. In earlier action the Board felt that the program would prove to be too expensive and ruled against it.

TB tests were available with parental consent, to all Circleville students.

on Kashmir with anybody." Nehru told Parliament he was not committed to a partition of disputed Kashmir as a basis of settlement and could not "bypass or ignore our basic principles."

Any "upset of the present arrangement would be very harmful to the people of Kashmir as well as to future relations between India and Pakistan," he added.

The present arrangement is a partition by a cease-fire line which has been in effect for 13 years under U.N. watch.

Nehru consented to the talks under the pressure of the Red Chinese offensive which broke through India's Himalayan frontiers.

A joint Indian-Pakistan communiqué announcing the talks was issued as Red China charged India with conducting provocative troop movements up to the Himalayan cease-fire lines.

The Chinese charge, made on the eve of the Saturday deadline set by Peking for a pullback of its troops, raised prospects of fresh fighting instead of a Chinese retreat.

The prospective Indian-Pakistan negotiations eased India's necessity, at least for the time, of keeping the bulk of her troops on guard against Pakistan during an undeclared border war with China. Already a squadron of American Hercules transports has transferred thousands of Indian troops from Pakistan's borders to the endangered Northeast.

Duncan Sandys, British Commonwealth relations secretary, took the lead in arranging the negotiations when he flew from New Delhi to Rawalpindi, the Pakistani capital, on Tuesday. U.S. Assistant Secretary of State W. Averell Harriman brought word Wednesday from New Delhi to Rawalpindi of Nehru's readiness to talk.

Sandys, Harriman and Ayub Khan roughed out the announcement of the negotiations at Ayub Khan's dinner table Wednesday night. Sandys flew to New Delhi with it at 5 a. m. Thursday for Nehru's approval.

The announcement said ministers of the two governments would negotiate first and Nehru and Ayub Khan would meet "at the appropriate stage." No date was announced for the start of the talks.

In their talks with Ayub Khan, Harriman and Sandys drove home the point that India and Pakistan as neighbors on the Indian subcontinent share a common peril from Chinese aggression.

Ayub Khan has been under pressure from many of the deputies to break off Pakistan's ties with the pro-Western CENTO and SEATO alliances because of the rush of the United States and Britain to build up Indian arsenals. Pakistani critics charge the rapid-fire guns and other weapons eventually will be turned against Pakistan.

Kashmir is the key issue. The ruling Hindu maharajah of Kashmir, whose 3 1/2 million people are 77 per cent Moslem, decided to join Hindu India in 1947. But Pakistan troops and irregulars invaded the Himalayan border state, and Indians and Pakistanis soon were fighting an undeclared war.

Since 1949 U.N. observers have been on watch to uphold a cease-fire, with India in possession of about two-thirds of the country, including Ladakh which is now mostly occupied by the Red Chinese.

K of P States Second Nomination

Philos Lodge No. 64, Knights of Pythias, will conduct its second nomination and election of officers for the coming year at 8 p. m. Monday during the regular business session.

Election of Grand Lodge officers will also be held during the meeting.

Two States Get Governors Three Weeks after Election

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two states have finally chosen governors, more than three weeks after the Nov. 6 election. But the winners' slender victory margins could be overturned in recounts.

Rhode Island became the latest state to pick a winner when, early today, absentee ballots gave the nod to Republican John H. Chafee over Democratic Gov. John A. Notte Jr. who sought a second two-year term. The final unofficial count put Chafee ahead by 398 votes.

There was no immediate word whether Notte would seek a recount.

But in another close gubernatorial election — in Minnesota — attorneys for Lt. Gov. Karl Rolvaag, a Democrat, were preparing recount petitions. They have 10 days in which to challenge the State Canvassing Board official certification Thursday of Republican Gov. Elmer L. Andersen as winner of another term.

The board acted on the order of the Minnesota Supreme Court which held that the board must count revised figures from 10 of the state's 87 counties. Those figures gave Andersen a 142-vote edge. Without the revisions, Rolvaag would have won by 58 votes. Recounts proceeded today in two other states.

With one-third of Massachusetts' 2,011 precincts recounted through Thursday, Democrat Endicott Peabody has picked up a net of 689 votes and upped his unofficial lead over Republican Gov. John A. Volpe, bidding for a second term, to 3,780 votes.

In South Dakota, Democrat George McGovern advanced to a 481-vote lead as 50 of the state's 67 counties completed a recount Thursday in his Senate battle with Republican Sen. Joe Bottom. McGovern held a 51-vote lead after the first count and it has slowly widened during the recount.

Chafee, a state representative, became the only Republican to win a major state office in Rhode Island with his victory.

Pulverizing Stroke Would Have Been Necessary in Cuba

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States might have been left with few readily maneuverable Army and Marine divisions to deal with other crises if it had launched an invasion of Cuba.

Perhaps for that reason, it was evident U.S. military chiefs counted on a swift, pulverizing stroke to knock out Fidel Castro's forces and Soviet-manned missile bases.

The Defense Department disclosed Thursday that more than 100,000 troops in the Strategic Army Corps had been alerted for possible use against Cuba in the recent crisis.

This represented five of the eight divisions in STRAC, the force maintained by the Army in the United States as a reserve to be rushed overseas in event of emergencies.

Two of the five divisions earmarked for the Cuban operation were the only paratroop outfits in the Army. The 82nd Airborne and the 101st Airborne Divisions normally would be the first to go in and hurry up "fire brigade" operation.

Over-all, the Army has 16 divisions. In addition to the eight in the United States, five are pinned down in West Germany facing the Iron Curtain, two are in South Korea confronting the Communists in North Korea and one division is split between Hawaii and Okinawa.

The Pentagon's roundup of military actions in the Cuban crisis indicated that about 12,000 Marines—nearly the equivalent of a full division—were committed to the Cuban operation.

They were sent in to reinforce the U.S. Naval Base at Guantanamo or were embarked with the Atlantic Fleet preparatory to landings or helicopter-borne attack on Cuba.

A 10-page Pentagon summary showed that at least 213,000 Army, Navy, Marine and Air Force fighting men either were in special alert or in position to strike at Cuba and defend the southeastern United States.

About 85,000 of these were aboard 183 Navy warships that blockaded Cuba and were set to turn their missiles, guns and jets against Cuba if the order were given.

The Defense Department's report said the Air Force's Strategic Air Command mounted a "massive airborne alert" of many of its 600 B52 heavy jet bombers. The rest of the B52s and about 1,000 B47 bombers were on their runways, primed to take off combat-loaded within 15 minutes after warnings.

Closing Law Described as Local Problem

CLEVELAND (AP)—Cuyahoga County Prosecutor John T. Corrigan says the Ohio Sunday closing statute is a problem of local government, but county authorities will enforce the law in communities where local governments have done nothing over a period of time.

"Just as gambling laws, motor vehicle laws and laws on prostitution are problems of local government, so also is the Sunday closing law," Corrigan told the executive committee of the County Mayors and City Managers Association Thursday.

"I would not want to step into this area any more than I would want to step into the enforcement of gambling, motor vehicle and prostitution laws unless it was absolutely necessary," he said.

The prosecutor told the mayors and city managers that since the state legislature soon would be in session, county authorities would wait to see what the legislature does about the closing law before acting.

"But if the legislators don't amend the law, or if they do, and a community does not enforce it, it will be incumbent on the county prosecutor and the sheriff to get enforcement," Corrigan added.

The Albee Crown Homes announces the appointment of A. W. Wolfe, Orient, as general manager of its newest model home display located on Route 62 near Harrisburg.

Wolfe is from Pittsburgh, Pa. and has been associated with Albee Homes for the past seven years.

Albee Crown Homes will offer to the public 175 pre-cut homes which are easily erected by the average do-it-yourselfer. Albee home purchasers can do as much work as they please in the construction of their homes.

Homes are packaged, bundled and numbered and color coded for easy identification.

Continuing steady growth and earning power of Columbus and Southern Ohio Electric Co., reports net income of $10,718,000 for the twelve months ended Oct. 31, 1962, at $3.36 per share on the 2,800,000 common shares outstanding at the end of the period. A year earlier they were $3.16 a common share based on 2,651,360 shares.

Harry M. Miller, president, said operating revenues of $63,254,000 for the most recent 12 months were 6.2 per cent above revenues of $59,548,000 for the 12 months which ended Oct. 31, 1962.

Only Token Integration Seen In Many Key Cities of South

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
White schools in key Southern cities have admitted Negroes under court orders, but for the most part there is only token integration.

Involved in this token compliance are a tangle of local problems, prejudices, concern and conflicting views about integration—how fast and how much.

Racial integration as envisioned by the U.S. Supreme Court's 1954 school decision is not a reality in such important testing grounds as Little Rock, Ark.; Clinton, Tenn.; Atlanta; Norfolk, Va.; New Orleans; Raleigh, N.C., and Oxford, Miss.

Clinton, Tenn.—one of the first scenes of violence after the Supreme Court decision—has more than 1,100 pupils in its schools. Of that number, 38 are Negroes.

Tennessee and Texas have moved further toward integration than other states of the South.

Desegregation moves slowly, though peacefully, in Tennessee. In Nashville, 490 Negroes attend previously white schools through the first six grades under the grade-a-year plan. Twenty-two of the state's school districts are desegregated.

Texas has many school districts completely integrated with no Negro schools remaining. In metropolitan areas there are integrated schools, white schools and Negro schools. A few more districts are integrated each year.

In Little Rock, five years after rioting brought in federal troops, 68 Negroes are enrolled in eight formerly white schools.

"Integration here is tolerated but not accepted," said Amos Guthridge, president of the segregationist Capital Citizens Council in Little Rock.

Everett Tucker Jr., school board president, believes desegregation has been accomplished in Little Rock. But board member Ted Lamb said he considers it only token integration.

In Norfolk—One of three Virginia cities where schools were shut down by the governor in 1958 to prevent integration—the change has been accepted. Negroes, nevertheless, have shown little interest in transferring to former all white schools.

Accused Slayer Enters Plea Of Innocent

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Frank Terris Clark, slender, red-haired New York State packing plant worker charged with killing a former Newark policeman, has pleaded innocent at his arraignment in Municipal Court.

The 24-year-old Clark was bound over to the Franklin County grand jury and ordered held without bond.

Police who trailed Clark to Homer, N.Y., after the Nov. 13 killing of David E. Mason, 22, have obtained a formal statement in which Clark said he fired the fatal shots after thumbing a ride with Mason.

In another development, sheriff's deputies said Pennsylvania state police want to question Clark about the assault of an Erie, Pa., woman last July.

Clark denied any connection with the crime but said he might have been in Pennsylvania at the time, Sheriff Stacy Hall said.

The woman was choked and slashed with a knife, but she recovered.

Cleveland Banker Dies

CLEVELAND (AP)—The dean of Cleveland bankers, John C. McHannan, 90, died Thursday in St. Luke's Hospital where he had been a patient about two weeks.

He was honorary board chairman of Central National Bank. He started work at the bank Oct. 1, 1892, as a $25-a-month collector-messenger and was the second oldest banker in Ohio in point of service with one institution.

Japanese Baptists Set Plans For Visit by Billy Graham

TOKYO (AP) — Japanese Baptists plan to bring evangelist Billy Graham and 600 Southern Baptists to Japan next year in a nationwide drive to increase their small flock.

The lay people will split into four-man teams, fanning out into 147 Japanese cities in what a top Graham aide called a crusade of unmatched scope and magnitude.

Leaders of the 15,000-member Baptist Convention of Japan and the 135 American missionaries here stress the Japanese church itself is behind this "New Life Movement" and that Graham and the 600, most of them Texans, are merely coming to help.

The difference between running the show and helping out means much here.

Earlier this year Southern California evangelist Bob Pearce brought a crusade to Japan amid much criticism by Japanese Christian leaders. They contended Pearce's visit was not Japanese-oriented and had political motivations because Pearce once spoke of the need of "protecting Japan from communism."

The Rev. Shuichi Matsumura, a Tokyo Baptist pastor and executive director of the New Life Movement, told newsmen he and his group feel that there will be no reaction to the 1963 effort because "factors are different."

"This movement is Japanese in origin and promotion," he said.

Graham is expected to arrive in Tokyo March 29 after holding crusades in Manila, Hong Kong and Formosa.

The 44-year-old evangelist is to speak in five major Japanese cities and meet with pastors and laymen's groups.

The teams, made up of an American pastor and three laymen, will be in the field from the northernmost island of Hokkaido to southernmost Kyushu.

Total cost of the effort is put at $300,000. Coleman D. Clark, secretary of evangelism in the Japan Baptist Convention, said the 89 Japanese churches would contribute probably 10 per cent of the cost with the Texas Baptist Convention pledged to pick up the difference.

Kennedy, Ike Join To Lead Drive for Cultural Center

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy led a big closed circuit television audience on the beginning of a $30-million culture crusade Thursday night.

He told the nation that when the dust of centuries has passed the United States "will be remembered not for our victories and defeats in battle or in politics, but for our contribution to the human spirit."

He was joined by former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, tuned in from Augusta, Ga., in a non-partisan appeal for funds to build a national cultural center here. "A mecca for art," Eisenhower called it. He said it could give everyone who comes to Washington a better appreciation of America.

Kennedy opened the show—an extravaganza of the arts from ballet and drama to concert stage, Negro spiritual and poetry, all donated by the artists.

He said "as always, art knows no national boundaries" and "genius can speak at any time and the entire world will hear."

But hearing was a big problem at the huge National Guard Armory, where a sellout crowd of 5,000 paid $100 for dinner and the show. Despite elaborate acoustical plans much of the audience had trouble hearing throughout the program, which ran 45 minutes over its scheduled two hours.

By the time the telecast ended at 12:12 a.m., more than half of the armory audience had departed, including Kennedy's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Sargent Shriver.

And comedian Danny Kaye, starting his routine at 11:40 p.m., quipped, "You know when I came here tonight I was a young man." Kennedy had come from a more than three hour White House conference with Soviet First Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan. He rose and stretched once midway through the program.

Eisenhower, who was to close the show, was kept up late at his Augusta Country Club vacation spot where a glittering Southern banquet hall was created for the $50-a-plate dinner.

An audience estimated at 150,000 tuned in on the closed-circuit pageant in 65 cities, paying entry fees from $1 to $100. It was hoped the night's efforts would raise one million dollars—just a fraction of what's needed for the cultural center.

Mechem Begins Sixth Term as GOP Leader

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — C. Stanley Mechem of Nelsonville, who will begin his 21st year as a state senator Jan. 7, has been elected by acclamation to his sixth term as Republican leader of the Senate.

The 68-year-old legislative veteran was re-elected Thursday at the GOP Senate caucus, along with Thomas E. Bateman, veteran Republican Senate clerk who will start his 16th two-year term in that office.

Mechem has been majority leader of the Senate at four previous sessions and minority leader at one.

Only two senators were absent from the caucus, Sens. Tennyson Guyer of Findlay and James H. Grose of Hubbard.

As majority leader, Mechem will head the Committee on Committees which will select chairmen and members of a dozen study units. These in turn will tackle an expected deluge of legislative proposals.

Other members of the Committee on Committees are Sens. Ross Pepple of Lima, William H. Deddens of Cincinnati, Theodore M. Gray of Piqua and Robert R. Shaw of Columbus, all Republicans.

How to travel in luxury without really flying

The new '63 Chevrolet has captured the silence and effortless ease of jet flight and translated it to highway travel. Every new Chevrolet, whether it's a luxury Impala, a low-priced Bel Air or a Biscayne, now has self-adjusting brakes, a Delcotron generator to extend battery life, and the ingenious new flush-and-dry system that takes air and rain water from the cowl and rinses corrosive elements out of the rocker panels where rust usually begins. A test drive will amaze you. The suspension, with coil springs at all four wheels, treats back roads, car tracks, gravel as though they were billiard-table smooth. The engine whisks you away from traffic lights or steps safely out to pass slower cars without once intruding on your privacy. When you're driving a Chevrolet, you don't take a back seat to anyone!

Kennedy, Ike Join To Lead Drive for Cultural Center

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy led a big closed circuit television audience on the beginning of a $30-million culture crusade Thursday night.

He told the nation that when the dust of centuries has passed the United States "will be remembered not for our victories and defeats in battle or in politics, but for our contribution to the human spirit."

He was joined by former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, tuned in from Augusta, Ga., in a non-partisan appeal for funds to build a national cultural center here. "A mecca for art," Eisenhower called it. He said it could give everyone who comes to Washington a better appreciation of America.

Kennedy opened the show—an extravaganza of the arts from ballet and drama to concert stage, Negro spiritual and poetry, all donated by the artists.

He said "as always, art knows no national boundaries" and "genius can speak at any time and the entire world will hear."

But hearing was a big problem at the huge National Guard Armory, where a sellout crowd of 5,000 paid $100 for dinner and the show. Despite elaborate acoustical plans much of the audience had trouble hearing throughout the program, which ran 45 minutes over its scheduled two hours.

By the time the telecast ended at 12:12 a.m., more than half of the armory audience had departed, including Kennedy's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Sargent Shriver.

And comedian Danny Kaye, starting his routine at 11:40 p.m., quipped, "You know when I came here tonight I was a young man."

Kennedy had come from a more than three hour White House conference with Soviet First Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan. He rose and stretched once midway through the program.

Eisenhower, who was to close the show, was kept up late at his Augusta Country Club vacation spot where a glittering Southern banquet hall was created for the $50-a-plate dinner.

An audience estimated at 150,000 tuned in on the closed-circuit pag-eant in 65 cities, paying entry fees from $1 to $100. It was hoped the night's efforts would raise one million dollars—just a fraction of what's needed for the cultural center.

Mechem Begins Sixth Term as GOP Leader

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — C. Stanley Mechem of Nelsonville, who will begin his 21st year as a state senator Jan. 7, has been elected by acclamation to his sixth term as Republican leader of the Senate.

The 69-year-old legislative veteran was re-elected Thursday at the GOP Senate caucus, along with Thomas E. Bateman, veteran Republican Senate clerk who will start his 16th two-year term in that office.

Mechem has been majority leader of the Senate at four previous sessions and minority leader at one.

Only two senators were absent from the caucus, Sens. Tennyson Guyer of Findlay and James H. Grose of Hubbard.

As majority leader, Mechem will head the Committee on Committees which will select chairmen and members of a dozen study units. These in turn will tackle an expected deluge of legislative proposals.

Other members of the Committee on Committees are Sens. Ross Pepple of Lima, William H. Deddens of Cincinnati, Theodore M. Gray of Piqua and Robert R. Shaw of Columbus, all Republicans.

Closing Law Described as Local Problem

CLEVELAND (AP)—Cuyahoga County Prosecutor John T. Corrigan says the Ohio Sunday closing statute is a problem of local government, but county authorities will enforce the law in communities where local governments have done nothing over a period of time.

"Just as gambling laws, motor vehicle laws and laws on prostitution are problems of local government, so also is the Sunday closing law," Corrigan told the executive committee of the County Mayors and City Managers Association Thursday.

"I would not want to step into this area any more than I would want to step into the enforcement of gambling, motor vehicle and prostitution laws unless it was absolutely necessary," he said.

The prosecutor told the mayors and city managers that since the state legislature soon would be in session, county authorities would wait to see what the legislature does about the closing law before acting.

"But if the legislators don't amend the law, or if they do, and a community does not enforce it, it will be incumbent on the county prosecutor and the sheriff to get enforcement," Corrigan added.

The Albee Crown Homes announces the appointment of A. W. Wolfe, Orient, as general manager of its newest model home display located on Route 62 near Harrisburg.

Wolfe is from Pittsburgh, Pa. and has been associated with Albee Homes for the past seven years.

Albee Crown Homes will offer to the public 175 pre-cut homes which are easily erected by the average do-it-yourselfer. Albee home purchasers can do as much work as they please in the construction of their homes.

Homes are packaged, bundled and numbered and color coded for easy identification.

Continuing steady growth and earning power of Columbus and Southern Ohio Electric Co., reports net income of $10,718,000 for the twelve months ended Oct. 31, 1962, at $3.36 per share on the 2,800,000 common shares outstanding at the end of the period. A year earlier they were $3.16 a common share based on 2,651,390 shares.

Harry M. Miller, president, said operating revenues of $63,254,000 for the most recent 12 months were 6.2 per cent above revenues of $59,548,000 for the 12 months which ended Oct. 31, 1962.

Only Token Integration Seen In Many Key Cities of South

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

White schools in key Southern cities have admitted Negroes under court orders, but for the most part there is only token integration.

Involved in this token compliance are a tangle of local problems, prejudices, concern and conflicting views about integration—how fast and how much.

Racial integration as envisioned by the U.S. Supreme Court's 1954 school decision is not a reality in such important testing grounds as Little Rock, Ark.; Clinton, Tenn.; Atlanta; Norfolk, Va.; New Orleans; Raleigh, N.C., and Oxford, Miss.

Clinton, Tenn.—one of the first scenes of violence after the Supreme Court decision—has more than 1,100 pupils in its schools. Of that number, 38 are Negroes.

Tennessee and Texas have moved further toward integration than other states of the South.

Desegregation moves slowly, though peacefully, in Tennessee. In Nashville, 490 Negroes attend previously white schools through the first six grades under the grade-a-year plan. Twenty-two of the state's school districts are desegregated.

Texas has many school districts completely integrated with no Negro schools remaining. In metropolitan areas there are integrated schools, white schools and Negro schools. A few more districts are integrated each year.

In Little Rock, five years after rioting brought in federal troops, 68 Negroes are enrolled in eight formerly white schools.

"Integration here is tolerated but not accepted," said Amos C. Guthridge, president of the segregationist Capital Citizens Council in Little Rock.

Everett Tucker Jr., school board president, believes desegregation has been accomplished in Little Rock. But board member Ted Lamb said he considers it only token integration.

Accused Slayer Enters Plea Of Innocent

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Frank Terris Clark, slender, red-haired New York State packing plant worker charged with killing a former Newark policeman, has pleaded innocent at his arraignment in Municipal Court.

The 24-year-old Clark was bound over to the Franklin County grand jury and ordered held without bond.

Police who trailed Clark to Homer, N.Y., after the Nov. 13 killing of David E. Mason, 22, have obtained a formal statement in which Clark said he fired the fatal shots after thumbing a ride with Mason.

In another development, sheriff's deputies said Pennsylvania state police want to question Clark about the assault of an Erie, Pa., woman last July.

Clark denied any connection with the crime but said he might have been in Pennsylvania at the time, Sheriff Stacy Hall said.

The woman was choked and slashed with a knife, but she recovered.

CLEVELAND (AP)—The dean of Cleveland bankers, John C. McHannan, 90, died Thursday in St. Luke's Hospital where he had been a patient about two weeks.

He was honorary board chairman of Central National Bank. He started work at the bank Oct. 1, 1892, as a $25-a-month collector-messenger and was the second oldest banker in Ohio in point of service with one institution.

Japanese Baptists Set Plans For Visit by Billy Graham

TOKYO (AP) — Japanese Baptists plan to bring evangelist Billy Graham and 600 Southern Baptists to Japan next year in a nationwide drive to increase their small flock.

The lay people will split into four-man teams, fanning out into 147 Japanese cities in what a top Graham aide called a crusade of unmatched scope and magnitude.

Leaders of the 15,000-member Baptist Convention of Japan and the 135 American missionaries here stress the Japanese church itself is behind this "New Life Movement" and that Graham and the 600, most of them Texans, are merely coming to help.

The difference between running the show and helping out means much here.

Earlier this year Southern California evangelist Bob Pearce brought a crusade to Japan amid much criticism by Japanese Christian leaders. They contended Pearce's visit was not Japanese-oriented and had political motivations because Pearce once spoke of the need of "protecting Japan from communism."

The Rev. Shuichi Matsumura, a Tokyo Baptist pastor and executive director of the New Life Movement, told newsmen he and his group feel that there will be no reaction to the 1963 effort because "factors are different."

"This movement is Japanese in origin and promotion," he said. Graham is expected to arrive in Tokyo March 29 after holding crusades in Manila, Hong Kong and Formosa.

The 44-year-old evangelist is to speak in five major Japanese cities and meet with pastors and laymen's groups.

The teams, made up of an American pastor and three laymen, will be in the field from the northernmost island of Hokokaido to southernmost Kyushu.

Total cost of the effort is put at $300,000. Coleman D. Clark, secretary of evangelism in the Japan Baptist Convention, said the 89 Japanese churches would contribute probably 10 per cent of the cost with the Texas Baptist Convention pledged to pick up the difference.

How to travel in luxury without really flying

The new '63 Chevrolet has captured the silence and effortless ease of jet flight and translated it to highway travel. Every new Chevrolet, whether it's a luxury Impala, a low-priced Bel Air or a Biscayne, now has self-adjusting brakes, a Delcotron generator to extend battery life, and the ingenious new flush-and-dry system that takes air and rain water from the cowl and rinses corrosive elements out of the rocker panels where rust usually begins. A test drive will amaze you. The suspension, with coil springs at all four wheels, treats back roads, car tracks, gravel as though they were billiard-table smooth. The engine whisks you away from traffic lights or steps safely out to pass slower cars without once intruding on your privacy. When you're driving a Chevrolet, you don't take a back seat to anyone!

Protection of the innocent and law-abiding citizen is the foremost duty of any police officer. Capturing and punishing one who commits a crime against society is a necessary step to this end, and not an end in itself. It is not sufficient protection for the citizen, however, if it is the convicted and not the victim who is the object of the law's mercy.

No one can deny one of the most deeply rooted causes of the criminal tendency commonly called juvenile delinquency is a decaying moral fiber in the home. Sufficient studies have been made to prove to objective minds that good parental judgment in mixing discipline with responsibility goes a long way toward developing the types of character which build, not destroy, society.

Assuming parental blame is deserving of the harsh case made for it in many of today's courtrooms, how is the character of the young criminal improved by an appeasement of justice? If he cannot be made to understand he alone must accept responsibility for his actions, can his untrained behavior ever be housebroken?

Mr. Hoover stated the case for the innocent victim of teenage thugs succinctly when he wrote in the recent issue of the FBI monthly newsletter for law enforcement officers:

"Youthful criminality is more than a childhood disease. It is a chronic and infectious plague. It does not dry up when neglected nor is it less violent when misnamed. It is still vicious, unadulterated crime."

This Is Civilization?

If a nation deliberately decided to determine how many of its inhabitants it could injure in the course of a year, it would be hard pressed to achieve a better record than the United States. According to the United States Public Health Service, an average of 45 million Americans are injured annually in the United States.

One of every four persons suffering injuries every year would be a high disability rate for a combat military unit, but for a civilian population of a country which enjoys the highest attainments of civilization and spends more than the rest of the world combined on safety devices and instruction, this is a shameful record of needless suffering and lost energy.

Falls are the largest single category of accidents, claiming 12 million victims each year. Automobile injuries, while claiming near three million victims, rate a poor fourth to such other causes as "struck by a moving object other than auto" (four million victims) and the 3.5 million injured by having "bumped into an object or person."

This latter category, it should be noted, includes victims of injuries caused by striking, punching or kicking.

This is civilization? Horace Greeley, who referred frequently to the hazards of frontier travel in his trip to California in 1859, undoubtedly could have made an appropriately acid comparison were he to survey the recklessness of modern man.

Pensionitis Common Disease

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Sidewalk observations by a Pavement Platoon:

The two most widespread ailments among mankind are tooth decay and the common cold.

But the most prevalent disease among American middle-aged men today is a comparatively new one known as "pensionitis."

Tooth decay can be treated and the patient with a common cold can at least be made comfortable while his malady runs its course. But so far there doesn't seem much that can be done for a person in the throes of pensionitis.

Pensionitis is characterized by an acute delusion that life is better without work. The victim babbles endlessly about how much greener the pastures will be when he is 65, gives up his job, and no one will tell him what he has to do. Usually he also makes wild and impossible plans about how he is going to enjoy his final freedom.

The disease is mildly noticeable in men of 35, deepens in intensity in those over 40, and in men past 50 or 55 often becomes a kind of frenzy.

However, in recent years pensionitis has spread rapidly among younger segments of the population. Personnel directors report more and more young college graduates are as interested in the company's pension program as in its opportunities for executive advancement.

Except among the rock 'n' roll set—no one really can understand what they talk about, or care—pensions are by far the most popular conversational topic anywhere in the land. Yes, far more popular than old standbys like baseball, politics, the weather—and whether the man next door beats his wife.

If you doubt this, the next time you go to a cocktail party step to the center of the room and announce in a loud, clear voice:

"My company has just put in a whopping new pension program and, boy, is it a good one!"

You will find this is a far better way to become the life of the party than had you merely stood on your head or sat down to the piano and rippled through a Mozart concerto. Everyone will flock up to hear your good news.

The present preoccupation with pensions is a rather sad reflection of something basically wrong with our times.

Man has always yearned for security in an insecure world, and for too long he feared old age because for many it meant making the lonely journey over the hill to the poorhouse, or being dependent on the charity of his children.

Social Security and the spread of pension programs throughout our economic system are doing much to wipe out that fear and to give the elderly financial independence.

But the trouble with pensionitis is that it makes a pension not an end reward but the actual goal of life.

The Business World

By Sam Dawson

NEW YORK (AP)—Many Americans who would prefer to read about the rest of the world or look at pictures taken by returning tourists are finding today that the world may be sitting in on decisions that are shaping the future for their business or their jobs as well as the cost of goods at the store.

And what's more, the industrial and financial look of the world is changing even faster than its map. As if the new problems at home weren't enough, U.S. businessmen and workers are now called upon to guess what the rest of the world is about to do. This could and does affect their business or their job security.

Americans recently have learned the hard way that the good old days of U.S. trade supremacy are over. For years after World War II, Americans could sell almost anything foreigners could get the dollars to buy—or that their governments would let them buy. Now U.S. manufacturers, farmers, and producers of many industrial raw materials find they are up against strong and growing competition from Europe and Japan, with underdeveloped countries itching to become self-sufficient.

Most dramatic is the rise of the Common Market in Europe. Six nations—France, West Germany, Italy, the Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg—are fashioning an industrial union that often can outsell Americans by offering cheaper prices, locations closer to growing consumer markets, or by that old device, a tariff wall against those not in the club.

This swift change in U.S. status has led Congress to give the President unprecedented power to bargain for lower tariffs, or none at all. How this bargaining goes will, for months to come, be a prime factor in setting the course of many an American company, or industry, or farm product. In some cases it could mean loss of jobs, in others more jobs. The bargaining and the uncertainty are features of the "new look" that the 1960s are busily, sometimes fearfully, fashioning.

The great empires that for generations dominated world trade are fading.

The rise of the big trading blocs, European and Soviet, and the attempts of smaller ones in Latin America and Southeast Asia to get going, is today's big uncertainty and may be tomorrow's challenge for the United States. Some in this country also talk of joining trading blocs—perhaps an Atlantic one, or a union of nations bordering on the Pacific, or an all-Western Hemisphere bloc.

Land under New York City's Rockefeller Center is owned by Columbia University. The institution receives $3,800,000 annually in rent for the property. It has been estimated the university has obtained $118.3 million from the center since 1828.

AT CHRISTMAS time every year, the tenth grade in a swanky private school up the Hudson presents a Shakespeare play—sometimes Julius Caesar, sometimes The Merchant of Venice, sometimes even Macbeth.

Shortly before this great event last December, the teacher of a lower grade asked, "Does anybody in this class know who Shakespeare is?" One kid raised his hand and declared, "Sure! He's the guy that writes our Christmas play every year."

A judge in the Southwest, indignant at learning that his wife had been denied a driving license, demanded of her, "Lillian, think hard. Did you say or do anything specific that seemed to upset the inspector who gave you your driving test?" Lillian did indeed think hard. "Well," she reflected, "he did seem bothered when, after he had asked me, 'What is the white line for in the middle of the road?' But I gave him the proper answer: 'Bicycles!'"

Two flies met on top of a huckleberry cake. "How's the world treating you, Mrs. Buzz?" asked one. "Not so good," was the weary reply. "Junior's been in such a pet I've had to walk the ceiling with him all week."

Don't be a sucker — even though you have arthritis!

Treatment can prevent crippling disability. But there's no magic cure. No wonder peddlers and pitchmen operate a 250 million dollar racket selling phony remedies. You want to believe that some secret formula works and so you recklessly dig deep into your bank account to buy some worthless junk. If it doesn't harm you it may keep you from seeking treatment needed to prevent crippling.

One man spent two years eating oily foods to lubricate his rusty joints — while his spine twisted and turned into a crooked, crippling curve. Arthritis sufferers squandered more than two million dollars for books about these oily diets.

Others chew alfalfa — fine cattle food but no arthritis cure. Some swindler peddled "special immune milk" from cows whose udders were vaccinated with certain germs. The going price — $1.70 a quart!

Colorful, flashing lights are always impressive. But one crook guaranteed his rainbow cure hundreds of miles away. Mailing him his fee automatically turned your body to the right frequency.

Don't let any huckster high-pressure you into buying magic copper bracelets, electromagnetic coils or uranium "radio-active" cures. Some gadgets can actually electrocute you. No one's going to carry dangerous radioactive chemicals door-to-door.

Don't be fooled by guarantees! Even if you can find the peddler, you'll usually find a loophole in the fine print — like the Rad-R Ray, "guaranteed or your money back in 30 days". The fine print explained that arthritis was a chronic condition and that you couldn't expect a cure before five or six months.

Watch out for pitchmen who promise more than temporary relief. Sure cures and secret formulas are usually phony.

Proper treatment can keep joints limber. Don't cripple yourself wasting time and money on worthless cures. That's for suckers.

First Hand Facts

By George Sokolsky

The important matter in Earl E. T. Smith's book, "The Fourth Floor" is that the State Department and the CIA require structural as well as personnel purification. The fact that two men, Roy Rubottom and William Wieland, down-the-line, could determine the policy of the United States concerning Cuba, without consulting or having the consent of the President of the United States or the Secretary of State, establishes beyond doubt that similar steps may, day by day, be taken by other secondary officials.

Smith says in his book: "From my experience in Cuba I have concluded that this need not have happened. That it did happen was, to a surprising degree, due to the policy of many in critical positions in the State Department that a Leftist dictator was better than a Rightist dictator, even though the Rightist dictator may be friendly to the United States and the Leftist dictator our enemy. The test with them is not what is beneficial to the United States but what fits their doctrinaire views of the future world."

Then he makes this telling point:

"I have shown in this book that it was impossible for Assistant Secretary of State Roy Rubottom, his associate, William Wieland, and the Fourth Floor not to be aware of Fidel Castro's Communist affiliations. It is beyond possibility that the CIA did not know. Roy Rubottom was in Bogota when Fidel Castro, at the age of twenty-two, was an active organizer of Communist insurrection.

"But I am sure that the Secretary of State and the Under-Secretary of State, and the President were not adequately and correctly informed on this subject, until it was too late. It is essential to understand this because while the Cuban situation may have to run its course, it ought not to be possible for the top officials of the United States to be kept in the dark on a matter of policy."

This is something too serious to let pass. Senator Smathers of Florida, who has had a slow burn about these men in the State Department — and the CIA should be included — introduced a bill to bring about a correction. His bill provides that all officers and employees of the State Department whose basic rate of compensation is in excess of $8,000, irrespective of the Veterans Preference Act, Foreign Service Act and the Civil Service Classification Act, should hold office at the pleasure of the Secretary of State. In other words, they can be fired.

It is a good start. It would better if the Secretary of State could fire any employee who takes it upon himself to set up a private policy and pursue it without the knowledge of the Secretary of State.

Ambassador Smith says: "To make my point clear, let me say that we helped to overthrow the Batista dictatorship, which was pro-American and anti-Communist, only to install the Castro dictatorship which was Communist and anti-American."

What is this Fourth Floor? Smith describes them:

"The Fourth Floor consists of desk-men, as they are called. They are career Foreign Service Officers who frequently look upon political appointees as here today and gone tomorrow."

"... The Secretary of State was preoccupied with Peking, Moscow, and Berlin. Policy decisions in Cuban affairs were determined on the Fourth Floor of the State Department, where influential persons believed in the revolution and hoped for its success. So far as I know, no definite policy governing our attitude to the friendly government of Cuba was set on the fifth floor the top echelon of the State Department."

This is the gist of the experience of an Ambassador. Four other Ambassadors reported regarding Castro and they got nowhere. Who in the State Department was permitted by order or by Executive instruction to keep from higher officials, including the President of the United States, such information? Nevertheless, there is ample evidence that there was knowledge in the State Department that Fidel Castro — not his brother or any of his friends but he, himself — was engaged in Communist activities in Bogota, Colombia, as early as 1948.

Ambassador Smith's book, "The Fourth Floor" is so packed full of direct and first hand facts that it becomes clear to the reader why the past month of horror occurred in the Caribbean.

NEW YORK (AP)—Sidewalk observations by a Pavement Platoon.

The two most widespread ailments among mankind are tooth decay and the common cold.

But the most prevalent disease among American middle-aged men today is a comparatively new one known as "pensionitis."

Tooth decay can be treated and the patient with a common cold can at least be made comfortable while his malady runs its course. But so far there doesn't seem much that can be done for a person in the throes of pensionitis.

Pensionitis is characterized by an acute delusion that life is better without work. The victim babbles endlessly about how much greener the pastures will be when he is 65, gives up his job, and no one will tell him what he has to do. Usually he also makes wild and impossible plans about how he is going to enjoy his final freedom.

The disease is mildly noticeable

in men of 35, deepens in intensity in those over 40, and in men past 50 or 55 often becomes a kind of frenzy.

However, in recent years pensionitis has spread rapidly among younger segments of the population. Personnel directors report more and more young college graduates are as interested in the company's pension program as in its opportunities for executive advancement.

Except among the rock 'n' roll set—no one really can understand what they talk about, or cares—pensions are by far the most popular conversational topic anywhere in the land. Yes, far more popular than old standbys like baseball, politics, the weather—and whether the man next door beats his wife.

If you doubt this, the next time you go to a cocktail party step to the center of the room and announce in a loud, clear voice:

"My company has just put in a whopping new pension program and, boy, is it a good one!"

You will find this is a far better way to become the life of the party than had you merely stood on your head or sat down to the piano and ripped through a Mozart concerto. Everyone will flock up to hear your good news.

The present preoccupation with pensions is a rather sad reflection of something basically wrong with our times.

Man has always yearned for security in an insecure world, and for too long he feared old age because for many it meant making the lonely journey over the hill to the poorhouse, or being dependent on the charity of his children.

Social Security and the spread of pension programs throughout our economic system are doing much to wipe out that fear and to give the elderly financial independence.

But the trouble with pensionitis is that it makes a pension not an end reward but the actual goal of life.

The Business World

By Sam Dawson

NEW YORK (AP)—Many Americans who would prefer to read about the rest of the world or look at pictures taken by returning tourists are finding today that the world may be sitting in on decisions that are shaping the future for their business or their jobs as well as the cost of goods at the store.

And what's more, the industrial and financial look of the world is changing even faster than its map.

As if the new problems at home weren't enough, U.S. businessmen and workers are now called upon to guess what the rest of the world is about to do. This could and does affect their business or their job security.

Americans recently have learned the hard way that the good old days of U.S. trade supremacy are over. For years after World War I, Americans could sell almost anything foreigners could get the dollars to buy—or that their governments would let them buy. Now U.S. manufacturers, farmers, and producers of many industrial raw materials find they are up against strong and growing competition from Europe and Japan, with underdeveloped countries itching to become self-sufficient.

Most dramatic is the rise of the Common Market in Europe. Six nations—France, West Germany, Italy, the Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg—are fashioning an industrial union that often can outsell Americans by offering cheaper prices, locations closer to growing consumer markets, or by that old device, a tariff wall against those not in the club.

This swift change in U.S. status has led Congress to give the President unprecedented power to bargain for lower tariffs, or none at all. How this bargaining goes will, for months to come, be a prime factor in setting the course of many an American company, or industry, or farm product. In some cases it could mean loss of jobs, in others more jobs. The bargaining and the uncertainty are features of the "new look" that the 1960s are busily, sometimes fearfully, fashioning.

The great empires that for generations dominated world trade are fading.

The rise of the big trading blocs, European and Soviet, and the attempts of smaller ones in Latin America and Southeast Asia to get going, is today's big uncertainty and may be tomorrow's challenge for the United States. Some in this country also talk of joining trading blocs—perhaps an Atlantic one, or a union of nations bordering on the Pacific, or an all-Western Hemisphere bloc.

Land under New York City's Rockefeller Center is owned by Columbia University. The institution receives $3,800,000 annually in rent for the property. It has been estimated the university has obtained $118.3 million from the center since 1928.

Try and Stop Me

AT CHRISTMAS time every year, the tenth grade in a swanky private school up the Hudson presents a Shakespeare play—sometimes Julius Caesar, sometimes The Merchant of Venice, sometimes even Macbeth.

Shortly before this great event last December, the teacher of a lower grade asked, "Does anybody in this class know who Shakespeare is?" One kid raised his hand and declared, "Sure! He's the guy that writes our Christmas play every year."

A judge in the Southwest, indignant at learning that his wife had been denied a driving license, demanded of her, "Lillian, think hard. Did you say or do anything specific that seemed to upset the inspector who gave you your driving test?" Lillian did indeed think hard. "Well," she reflected, "he did seem bothered when, after he had asked me, 'What is the white line for in the middle of the road?' But I gave him the proper answer: 'Bicycles!'"

Inside You and Yours

Don't be a sucker—even though you have arthritis!

Treatment can prevent crippling disability. But there's no magic cure. No wonder peddlers and pitchmen operate a 250 million dollar racket selling phony remedies.

You want to believe that some secret formula works and so you recklessly dig deep into your bank account to buy some worthless junk. If it doesn't harm you it may keep you from seeking treatment needed to prevent crippling.

One man spent two years eating oily foods to lubricate his rusty joints—while his spine twisted and turned into a crooked, crippling curve. Arthritis sufferers squandered more than two million dollars for books about these oily diets.

Others chew alfalfa—fine cattle food but no arthritis cure. Some swindler peddled "special immune milk" from cows whose udders were vaccinated with certain germs. The going price—$1.70 a quart!

Colorful, flashing lights are always impressive. But one crook guaranteed his rainbow cure hundreds of miles away. Mailing him his fee automatically turned your body to the right frequency.

Don't let any huckster high-pressure you into buying magic copper bracelets, electromagnetic coils or uranium "radio-active" cures. Some gadgets can actually electrocute you. No one's going to carry dangerous radioactive chemicals door-to-door.

Don't be fooled by guarantees! Even if you can find the peddler, you'll usually find a loophole in the fine print—like the Rad-Ray, "guaranteed or your money back in 30 days". The fine print explained that arthritis was a chronic condition and that you couldn't expect a cure before five or six months.

Watch out for pitchmen who promise more than temporary relief. Sure cures and secret formulas are usually phony.

First Hand Facts

By George Sokolsky

The important matter in Earl E. T. Smith's book, "The Fourth Floor" is that the State Department and the CIA require structural as well as personnel purification. The fact that two men, Roy Rubottom and William Wieland, down-the-line, could determine the policy of the United States concerning Cuba, without consulting or having the consent of the President of the United States or the Secretary of State, establishes beyond doubt that similar steps may, day by day, be taken by other secondary officials.

Smith says in his book:

"From my experience in Cuba I have concluded that this need not have happened. That it did happen was, to a surprising degree, due to the policy of many in critical positions in the State Department that a Leftist dictator was better than a Rightist dictator, even though the Rightist dictator may be friendly to the United States and the Leftist dictator our enemy. The test with them is not what is beneficial to the United States but what fits their doctrinaire views of the future world."

Then he makes this telling point:

"I have shown in this book that it was impossible for Assistant Secretary of State Roy Rubottom, his associate, William Wieland, and the Fourth Floor not to be aware of Fidel Castro's Communist affiliations. It is beyond possibility that the CIA did not know. Roy Rubottom was in Bogota when Fidel Castro, at the age of twenty-two, was an active organizer of Communist insurrection.

"But I am sure that the Secretary of State and the Under-Secretary of State, and the President were not adequately and correctly informed on this subject, until it was too late. It is essential to understand this because while the Cuban situation may have to run its course, it ought not to be possible for the top officials of the United States to be kept in the dark on a matter of policy."

This is something too serious to let pass. Senator Smathers of Florida, who has had a slow burn about these men in the State Department—and the CIA should be included—introduced a bill to bring about a correction. His bill provides that all officers and employees of the State Department whose basic rate of compensation is in excess of $8,000, irrespective of the Veterans Preference Act, Foreign Service Act and the Civil Service Classification Act, should hold office at the pleasure of the Secretary of State. In other words, they can be fired.

It is a good start. It would better if the Secretary of State could fire any employee who takes it upon himself to set up a private policy and pursue it without the knowledge of the Secretary of State.

Ambassador Smith says:

"To make my point clear, let me say that we helped to overthrow the Batista dictatorship, which was pro-American and anti-Communist, only to install the Castro dictatorship which was Communist and anti-American."

What is this Fourth Floor? Smith describes them:

"The Fourth Floor consists of desk-men, as they are called. They are career Foreign Service Officers who frequently look upon political appointees as here today and gone tomorrow."

"... The Secretary of State was preoccupied with Peking, Moscow, and Berlin. Policy decisions in Cuban affairs were determined on the Fourth Floor of the State Department, where influential persons believed in the revolution and hoped for its success. So far as I know, no definite policy governing our attitude to the friendly government of Cuba was set on the fifth floor the top echelon of the State Department).

This is the gist of the experience of an Ambassador. Four other Ambassadors reported regarding Castro and they got nowhere. Who in the State Department was permitted by order or by Executive instruction to keep from higher officials, including the President of the United States, such information? Nevertheless, there is ample evidence that there was knowledge in the State Department that Fidel Castro—not his brother or any of his friends but he, himself—was engaged in Communist activities in Bogota, Colombia, as early as 1948.

Ambassador Smith's book, "The Fourth Floor" is so packed full of direct and first hand facts that it becomes clear to the reader why the past month of horror occurred in the Caribbean.

Miss America Urges Contest Participation

CLEVELAND (AP)—Jacquelyn Jeanne Mayer, Miss America of 1963, advised an audience of some 400 Rotarians and their wives Thursday night to encourage young girls to participate in the Miss America contest.

"Whether a girl wins in the contest, even at the local level, is not the important thing," the 20-year-old Sandusky girl said at the Rotary Club's annual Ladies' night. "By simply competing she will develop her confidence, poise and personality—and be a better woman for it."

The dinner wound up a busy day for Miss America. It began with a session in Mayor Ralph S. Locher's office, where she was presented a key to the city. At noon, accompanied by the mayor, she appeared at the Salvation Army Christmas kettle at East 9th Street and Euclid Avenue and made the initial donation.

She spent the afternoon making television and personal appearances.

Miss America Urges Contest Participation

CLEVELAND (AP)— Jacquelyn Jeanne Mayer, Miss America of 1963, advised an audience of some 400 Rotarians and their wives Thursday night to encourage young girls to participate in the Miss America contest.

"Whether a girl wins in the contest, even at the local level, is not the important thing," the 20-year-old Sandusky girl said at the Rotary Club's annual Ladies' night. "By simply competing she will develop her confidence, poise and personality—and be a better woman for it."

The dinner wound up a busy day for Miss America. It began with a session in Mayor Ralph S. Locher's office, where she was presented a key to the city. At noon, accompanied by the mayor, she appeared at the Salvation Army Christmas kettle at East 9th Street and Euclid Avenue and made the initial donation.

She spent the afternoon making television and personal appearances.

Six of Ten Women Praise Culinary Skills of Husbands

Six out of 10 wives whose husbands like to cook say their spouses' culinary skills are as good or better than theirs, according to a poll among contenders in the Men's National Cooking Championship.

The championship each year attracts tens of thousands of amateur male cooks all over the country who are seeking the national crown, the $1,000 award and two-week vacation for two that go with it.

A nationwide poll, aimed at finding out what husbands and their wives think about men performing in the kitchen, was made as entries continued to pour into championship headquarters at 331 Madison Avenue, New York City, prior to the December 15 deadline. All men except professional cooks may enter as many original recipes for main dishes using potato chips as they wish.

The poll showed that about two-thirds of the husbands cook the family meals or prepare dinner for guests at least three or four times a week. And one in 20 cooks as often as once a day or more.

Some said their wives persuaded them to take up cooking, while many were influenced by other men who like to cook. For some, it began as a necessity — because they lived alone or with invalid wives or mothers. Others said doctors had prescribed cooking as a therapy.

Male cooking contenders prefer meat dishes over all others, with poultry next, fish and seafoods after that, then dairy dishes and vegetable and fruit dishes, according to the poll.

The recipes entered in the cooking competition, sponsored by the Potato Chip Institute International, will be judged by a panel of leading women food experts. State champions will be selected and then four regional champions will be picked to compete for the national title in Chicago's Conrad-Hilton Hotel on January 30.

The regional champions and their wives (or friend) will enjoy a week's vacation in Chicago the week of January 27, during which the final cooking competition will take place before the public.

Their dishes will be judged on the basis of taste, appearance, texture and originality and the national champion will receive an extra week's vacation for two plus the cash award, while runners-up also will receive cash awards.

6 The Circleville Herald, Fri, November 30, 1962
Circleville, Ohio

Dear Abby: You Both Need Help!

by Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I have been going with this man (he is 26 and I am 22) for about a year. We love each other very much and have spoken of marriage. He has a terrible temper and when he gets provoked he hits me. He has blackened my eyes and left bruises on me several times. Afterwards he begs me to forgive him and promises he'll never do it again, but he always does. The last time he hit me he cracked two ribs and loosened three teeth. I broke up with him and haven't seen him in two weeks. I now find my love for him is even greater than before and I want to go back to him but don't know if I should. Can you help me?

NO GREATER LOVE
DEAR NO: Any man who would repeatedly strike a woman is sick. And any woman whose love is "greater than before" after such abuse is sicker than he is. If you go back to him, you should use the rocks in your head to fill up the holes in his!

DEAR ABBY: I once read that Russians think we worship dogs. Lies," I cried. Then I looked into the facts. I learned that more is spent each year on dog and cat food than on baby food. That there are beauty parlors for dogs (at $10 a visit), mink coats for dogs and jeweled collars and leashes that cost thousands of dollars! Dogs (and cats) have been named sole heirs to fortunes. And, Abby, there are even psychologists for dogs! I think dogs make charming pets, but when there are so many undernourished and unloved children in the world, they should come first.

MOTHER OF TEN
DEAR MOTHER: Considering the millions of dog-owners in the country, you are focusing far too much attention on the few oddballs who lavish thousands of dollars on jeweled collars, mink coats and leave their fortunes to their dogs. Dogs protect the blind, hunt down criminals, protect homes and provide companionship for many, so don't waste your energy worrying about what the Russians think.

DEAR ABBY: Please tell me how to kiss a boy. I am going to a party the first of December and will need the information by then. I thank you.

NEEDS TO KNOW
DEAR NEEDS: How old are you? Anyone who needs information on how to kiss is too young to use it.

DEAR ABBY: My son's teacher kept the entire class after school for 30 minutes. She wouldn't allow anyone to telephone home to say they'd been detained. I was one of the mothers who sat out in my car, waiting. My son was late for his dental appointment, and another boy was late for his music lesson. Please don't give me that song and dance about teachers being overworked and underpaid. They have shorter days and longer vacations than office workers, and if they don't like children they should find another job.

IRRITATED MOTHER
DEAR IRRITATED: An effective way to keep individuals in line is to punish the entire class and then let the culprit suffer at the hands of his classmates. But no child should be denied permission to call home.

What's on your mind? For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Week of Prayer Planned by Group

WMU of the First Baptist Church will observe a week of prayer for foreign missions, to be held at the church beginning Monday.

The meetings, to be conducted each morning from 9:30 to 10:30, will include a study of foreign activities and prayer for missionaries and their work.

A movie, "All Are Called" will be shown at the 7 p. m. service Wednesday.

Meeting Postponed

The Morris EUB Ladies Aid meeting has been postponed for a week.

Dinner Plans Slated

Delta Kappa Gamma Beta Rho Chapter will meet 6:30 p. m. Tuesday at Pickaway Arms for dinner.

All roast meat should be allowed to stand from 20 to 30 minutes after being removed from the oven and before being carved. This lapse of time always gives the hostess a chance to do the necessary last-minute work.

Perfect garnish for winter-holiday roast poultry or meat: clusters of grapes with preserved kumquats.

Count on boiling two pounds of onions and making two cups of medium white sauce if you are planning to serve creamed onions on a holiday menu designed for a dozen eaters.

Six of Ten Women Praise Culinary Skills of Husbands

Six out of 10 wives whose husbands like to cook say their spouses' culinary skills are as good or better than theirs, according to a poll among contenders in the Men's National Cooking Championship.

The championship each year attracts tens of thousands of amateur male cooks all over the country who are seeking the national crown, the $1,000 award and two-week vacation for two that go with it.

A nationwide poll, aimed at finding out what husbands and their wives think about men performing in the kitchen, was made as entries continued to pour into championship headquarters at 331 Madison Avenue, New York City, prior to the December 15 deadline. All men except professional cooks may enter as many original recipes for main dishes using potato chips as they wish.

The poll showed that about two-thirds of the husbands cook the family meals or prepare dinner for guests at least three or four times a week. And one in 20 cooks as often as once a day or more.

Some said their wives persuaded them to take up cooking, while many were influenced by other men who like to cook. For some, it began as a necessity — because they lived alone or with invalid wives or mothers. Others said doctors had prescribed cooking as a therapy.

Male cooking contenders prefer meat dishes over all others, with poultry next, fish and seafoods after that, then dairy dishes and vegetable and fruit dishes, according to the poll.

The recipes entered in the cooking competition, sponsored by the Potato Chip Institute International, will be judged by a panel of leading women food experts. State champions will be selected and then four regional champions will be picked to compete for the national title in Chicago's Conrad-Hilton Hotel on January 30.

The regional champions and their wives (or friend) will enjoy a week's vacation in Chicago the week of January 27, during which the final cooking competition will take place before the public.

Their dishes will be judged on the basis of taste, appearance, texture and originality and the national champion will receive an extra week's vacation for two plus the cash award, while runners-up also will receive cash awards.

Dear Abby: You Both Need Help!

by Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I have been going with this man (he is 26 and I am 22) for about a year. We love each other very much and have spoken of marriage. He has a terrible temper and when he gets provoked he hits me. He has blackened my eyes and left bruises on me several times. Afterwards he begs me to forgive him and promises he'll never do it again, but he always does. The last time he hit me he cracked two ribs and loosened three teeth. I broke up with him and haven't seen him in two weeks. I now find my love for him is even greater than before and I want to go back to him but don't know if I should. Can you help me?

NO GREATER LOVE
DEAR NO: Any man who would repeatedly strike a woman is sick. And any woman whose love is "greater than before" after such abuse is sicker than he is. If you go back to him, you should use the rocks in your head to fill up the holes in his!

DEAR ABBY: I once read that Russians think we worship dogs. Lies," I cried. Then I looked into the facts. I learned that more is spent each year on dog and cat food than on baby food. That there are beauty parlors for dogs (at $10 a visit), mink coats for dogs and jeweled collars and leashes that cost thousands of dollars! Dogs (and cats) have been named sole heirs to fortunes. And, Abby, there are even psychologists for dogs! I think dogs make charming pets, but when there are so many undernourished and unloved children in the world, they should come first.

MOTHER OF TEN
DEAR MOTHER: Considering the millions of dog-owners in the country, you are focusing far too much attention on the few oddballs who lavish thousands of dollars on jeweled collars, mink coats and leave their fortunes to their dogs. Dogs protect the blind, hunt down criminals, protect homes and provide companionship for many, so don't waste your energy worrying about what the Russians think.

DEAR ABBY: Please tell me how to kiss a boy. I am going to a party the first of December and will need the information by then. I thank you.

NEEDS TO KNOW
DEAR NEEDS: How old are you? Anyone who needs information on how to kiss is too young to use it.

DEAR ABBY: My son's teacher kept the entire class after school for 30 minutes. She wouldn't allow anyone to telephone home to say they'd been detained. I was one of the mothers who sat out in my car, waiting. My son was late for his dental appointment, and another boy was late for his music lesson. Please don't give me that song and dance about teachers being overworked and underpaid. They have shorter days and longer vacations than office workers, and if they don't like children they should find another job.

IRRITATED MOTHER
DEAR IRRITATED: An effective way to keep individuals in line is to punish the entire class and then let the culprit suffer at the hands of his classmates. But no child should be denied permission to call home.

What's on your mind? For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Week of Prayer Planned by Group

WMU of the First Baptist Church will observe a week of prayer for foreign missions, to be held at the church beginning Monday.

The meetings, to be conducted each morning from 9:30 to 10:30, will include a study of foreign activities and prayer for missionaries and their work.

A movie, "All Are Called" will be shown at the 7 p. m. service Wednesday.

Meeting Postponed

The Morris EUB Ladies Aid meeting has been postponed for a week.

Dinner Plans Slated

Delta Kappa Gamma Beta Rho Chapter will meet 6:30 p. m. Tuesday at Pickaway Arms for dinner.

All roast meat should be allowed to stand from 20 to 30 minutes after being removed from the oven and before being carved. This lapse of time always gives the hostess a chance to do the necessary last-minute work.

Perfect garnish for winter-holiday roast poultry or meat: clusters of grapes with preserved kumquats.

Demonstration Club Has All Day Meet at Coliseum

Community Circle Demonstration Club met Wednesday at Pickaway County Fairgrounds Coliseum for an all day meeting. A carry-in luncheon was served at noon to 16 members. Mrs. A. W. Graf was welcomed as a new member.

The Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison. Mrs. John Ankrom, counselor, opened the meeting with the pledge of allegiance.

Mrs. Emily Berry, treasurer, read the minutes and roll call. Lesson for the day was "Mend and Save the Easy Way" demonstrated by Mrs. Ankrom.

An election of officers was held. The afternoon was spent making Christmas corsages and a very interesting display of Christmas items were shown.

The group made plans to attend the county wide annual Christmas program and covered dish luncheon. It will be held from 11 a. m. to 3 p. m., Dec. 7, in the 4-H Grange building at the Fairgrounds.

Next meeting will be Jan. 23 at the Fairgrounds Coliseum with a gift exchange.

Members present were Mrs. L. E. Foreman, Mrs. Jeff Cline, Mrs. Emerson Dum, Mrs. Jennie Russell, Mrs. Elizabeth Downs, Mrs. Cecil Ward, Mrs. C. P. Heikel, Mrs. Harry Trump, Mrs.

Glen Rinehart, Mrs. Walter Cummins, Mrs. John Wolford, Mrs. C. L. Newlon, Mrs. Ray Anderson, Mrs. Emily Berry, Mrs. Carolyn Young and Mrs. Ankrom.

Pickaway County GC Plans Workshop

Pickaway County Garden Club will conduct a Christmas workshop 9:30 p. m. Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Karl Seyfarth, 425 Wood Lane.

Members are asked to bring a sack lunch and material for their own Christmas arrangement. Artificial flowers and Christmas ribbon will be sold there.

Fire Injuries Fatal

PIQUA, Ohio (AP) — Mrs. Gladys Dalrymple, who lived alone, was standing near a coal stove Thursday when her clothing caught fire. The 71-year-old woman was able to call authorities who rushed to the scene and administered first aid, but she died several hours later in a hospital.

The first presidential veto was a disapproval by George Washington of the Congressional apportionment act based on the first U.S. census in 1790.

This Tiny Republic Learns To Make Lot Out of Little

SAN MARINO (AP)—This oldest and tiniest republic has learned to make a lot out of a little.

There is no public debt or unemployment. There hasn't been a murder in over a century. With postage stamps and its fingernail polish, the 38-square mile country has no troubles that a good tourist season doesn't solve. Every year two million tourists come in to spend a little time and a lot of money among the 15,200 San Marinenses.

San Marino claims one further distinction. It is the only European country ever won back from communism.

According to San Marino history, a persecuted Christian stone-mason fled here from Dalmatia and founded the republic 1,600 years ago. He later became St. Marinus and gave his name to the nation perched atop rocky Titano, 1,560 feet high and 12 miles inland from Rimini on Italy's Adriatic Coast.

The capital and sole city, San Marino, still looks medieval with its ancient walls, its three famous castles, and its cobbled streets too steep and too narrow for automobiles.

But San Marino bustles with modern ways.

Tiny factories and souvenir shops provide so many jobs that 3,000 Italians commute to San Marino to bolster the working force.

Italy, which completely surrounds San Marino, pays the little country a million dollars a year because San Marino lets Italy collect its customs tax on imports.

San Marino does its own collecting on postage stamps, selling almost a million dollars' worth a year. Forty-five employees are kept busy in the post office selling them. The stamps are printed in Rome.

San Marino residents pay a 14 per cent tax on income. There is an additional tax of 5 to 8 per

U.S. Diplomat's Whims Chided As Being Costly

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Wayne Hays, D-Ohio, says former Ambassador John Davis Lodge cost the United States a quarter of a million dollars by refusing to move into a new embassy residence in Madrid because of its modern architecture.

Lodge, a Republican who served in Spain from 1955 to 1961, fired back that Hays' assertions were inaccurate and politically motivated.

Hayes, chairman of a House Foreign Affairs Subcommittee on buildings, has just returned from Europe where he visited the Spanish embassy. He opened the bitter exchange by saying Lodge refused to move into grounds "it was too modern."

Lodge wanted to live in a Spanish-style residence, Hays said, and so the new building was taken over by the U.W. Information Agency while the ambassador continued to rent living quarters for $15,000 a year.

Now, Hays said, it has been decided to use the modern-style residence, but it will have to be remodeled at a cost of $100,000.

Hays said he did not know how much the building cost originally. But, he commented, "Mr. Lodge's whim cost us a quarter of a million dollars."

Ohio Will Receive Federal Road Funds

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ohio will receive more than $214 million from the federal government for highway work in the fiscal year that begins next July 1.

An additional $237.5 million was apportioned to the states Thursday, completing the parceling out of more than $3.5 billion of federal highway funds for the coming fiscal year.

Ohio's total share is allotted this way:
Primary roads—$14,789,284.
Secondary roads—$9,224,354.
Urban roads—$13,402,297.
Interstate highways — $176,962,100.

cent on direct profits from tourism.

San Marino's nail polish is exported all over the world. More than 1½ million bottles are sold annually.

After the year San Marino went Communist. The Communists lost the government in the strange revolution of 1957.

That started when Mother Superior Veronica Serri reopened a Catholic school at a convent which the Communist government had ordered closed.

The dispute over what to do about it grew bitter in the Grand Council. San Marino's ancient legislature. The Communist-Socialist alliance had 31 of 60 council seats, but two Socialists defected and joined the Christian Democrats.

Chief executives of San Marino are two joint captains-regent elected for six month terms by the council. The Communist and Socialist regents then in office, seeing their alliance jolted out of the majority, dissolved the council and ordered new national elections.

They called out San Marino's 83-man volunteer army with its blue and silver uniforms and World War I rifles.

The regents ordered them to keep the grand council closed.

The Christian Democrats raised San Marino's blue and white flag over an abandoned iron foundry and declared themselves the legal government.

The situation was explosive. There were fist fights in Freedom Square before the 15th century government building. Armed men from both camps marched the streets.

Then, after a week of nerve-racking strain, moustached Domenico Morganti, the Communist interior minister, ordered his militia to yield.

Local Baha'i Group

Lists Weekly Thought

The following is from Baha'i writings:

"In 'The Unfoldment of World Civilization', by Shoghi Effendi, Guardian of the Baha'i Faith, the author states that the maturity of the human race may be 'likened to the culminating stage in the political evolution of the great American Republic, the emergence of a unified community of federated states.' 'Such is the stage,' says the author, 'to which an evolving humanity is collectively approaching.'"

Nuclear Rocket Test

Predicted in 5 Years

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States hopes to flight test its first nuclear-powered rocket in about five years—as a step toward making it ready to carry men through space in the 1970s, Atomic Energy Commission experts said today.

Dr. Glenn T. Seaborg, chairman of the AEC, said there would be another test Friday of the Kiwi reactor in the long development program at the test station in Nevada.

Farmers spend an estimated $125 to $130 million annually for equipment goods and services to produce crops, and another $13 million for consumer goods for family living.

The Evening Star

The brilliant evening star is a symbol of many things to many folk. Mariners hail it as a good omen, for it usually forecasts a clear, calm night and smooth sailing. The shepherd tending his flock on a desolate hillside gratefully notes its appearance in the heavens, for its friendly light offers an intangible sort of companionship during his lonely vigil. To many, the star is representative of God's infinite power and wisdom.

Just as this star touches hearts in countless different ways, so may the Church bring to those in all walks of life, peace and comfort which lead to a happier, more fruitful pattern of life.

Let us make the Church our guiding light. We can brighten our lives if we accept the teaching of the Scriptures as guideposts along the pathway to future endeavors.

The Church

CHRIST'S PREDICTION ABOUT THE CHURCH, ITS ORIGIN AND EARLY GROWTH, AND SOME IDEALS FOR THE CHURCH REVEALED TO PAUL

Scripture—Matthew 16:15-17; 18:15-20; John 17:20-26; Acts 2:1-4, 38-47; 1 Corinthians 11:23-26; 12:12, 13, 27-31; Ephesians 2:11-22.

By N. SPEER JONES

THE GREEK WORD for church — ekklesia — originally meant a public assembly summoned by a herald. In the Greek text of the Old Testament it refers to an assembly of the Israelites. In the New Testament, its meaning is the one common today, all those gathered together by their faith in Christ, knit together and in Him through the power of the Holy Spirit.

Christ Himself refers to the church only twice in our records of His public ministry. These are in the assigned passages from Matthew.

In the first, if the passage is logically continued to include verse 18, the relationship of the church to Christ is illumined. The key piece of the church is the fact that Christ is the Son of God. The building of this church will be done by Christ Himself. Death will have no effect on its existence or power.

In the other one of Christ's statements about the church, one of its most important practical functions, that of discipline, is stressed. The church's role here is not to take the first action, but the third. The first course of action regarding a sin is to be a personal attempt to work things out between the sinner and the one sinned against. If that doesn't work, a couple of others are to be called in. Only then is the grievance to be taken before the others in the church; if the fault is not mended, the church group carries through its discipline by considering the person as an outsider.

A second important aspect of the church is pointed out in this passage—it can be present anywhere, regardless of setting. Based on copyrighted outlines produced by the Division of Christian Education, National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A., and used by permission.

Man Being Held

On Abortion Count

GEORGETOWN, Ohio (AP) — Brown County Prosecutor Richard Liggett says he wants to confer with Judge John Houston of Common Pleas Court before filing charges in the case of a man who admitted performing abortions.

Liggett's comments came Thursday in the arrest of 86-year-old Charles Evans, described as "a sort of unlicensed veterinarian" by Sheriff William Utter.

The sheriff said Evans signed a statement admitting he performed abortions regularly for the past 15 years.

He was arrested after two Warren County women entered a Dayton hospital for treatment of complications following abortions. One woman identified Evans as the man who performed the operation.

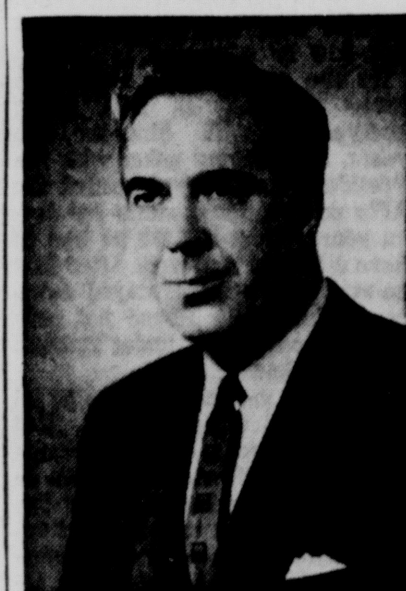

our love of God and Christ. Paul dwells on this point at length in our passages from Corinthians.

The actual birth of the church is recorded in Acts 2:1-4. Not only is the church a spiritual entity rooted in Christ's Sonship, but the very creation of His church is a divine act. With a mighty sound and sight, the disciples were suddenly invested with the Holy Spirit on the day of Pentecost. This gift of the Holy Spirit to the disciples was much the same as the descent of the Holy Spirit to Christ at His baptism.

Verses 38-41 deal with the first converts to the church. Verses 42-47 deal with some of its early characteristics, and the passage from the 11th chapter of first Corinthians elaborates on the sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

Opinions Differ On Commercials

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Broadcasting Co. and American Broadcasting Co. differ with the president of the National Association of Broadcasters over his suggestion that cigarette commercials be revised to avoid any encouragement of smoking by youngsters.

The association president, former Gov. LeRoy Collins of Florida, contended in a recent speech that medical evidence suggested a health hazard in cigarette smoking.

Collins expressed a personal opinion that broadcasters should take the initiative in adopting corrective measures concerning commercials aimed at youngsters.

He said such reform could come through amendment of the trade group's Code of Good Practices.

The National Broadcasting Co. said in a statement: "Gov. Collins was not speaking for the National Broadcasting Co. in his recent observations on tobacco advertising and NBC does not share the views he stated on the subject."

The American Broadcasting Co. issued this statement: "ABC does not concur with Gov. Collins' view."

The Columbia Broadcasting System said: "This is a code matter and the established code organization is the proper forum for a discussion of it."

A meeting of the code committee is scheduled in Washington on Dec. 11.

Judge's Reply Still Awaited

CLEVELAND (AP) — A Sandusky County judge has until Dec. 21 to reply to a Coast Guard notice charging him with reckless and negligent operation of motorboat on the Sandusky River last summer.

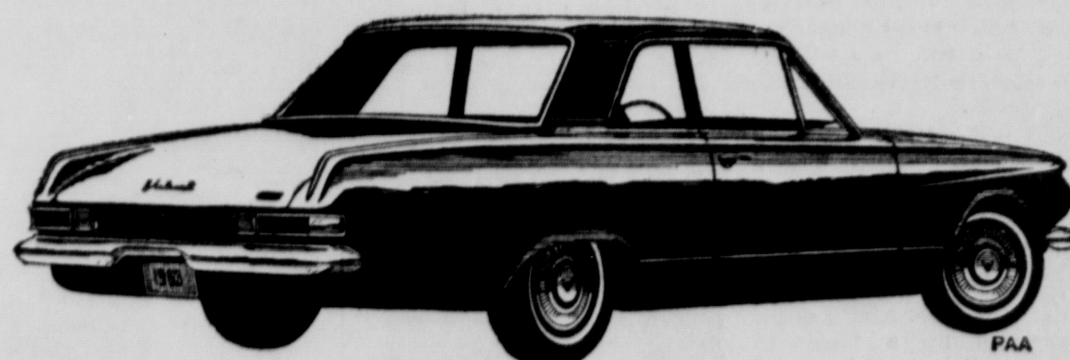

Judge George D. Reinbolt of Fremont has not yet replied to a notice of violation served on him Nov. 21, the 9th District Court Guard Headquarters here said today. After his reply is received, the district commander will decide whether to assess a penalty, which could be a fine of up to $100. The judge could appeal any fine to the Coast Guard commandant.

Capt. Clement Cozad, commander of the Coast Guard's Marine Inspection Unit at Toledo, said Judge Reinbolt was accused of using his motorboat to tow two water skiers at a high rate of speed near Wightman's Grove on the Sandusky River Aug. 12.

The New Valiant

BEST ALL-AROUND COMPACT ANYBODY HAS COME UP WITH YET!

You'd think that an amazing 5-year or 50,000-mile warranty on a new compact car would be enough to offer a value-minded buyer. But it's not enough for Chrysler Corporation. In this new—completely restyled—'63 Valiant you'll get more than any other compact at its price (101 standard horsepower). You'll get the kind of cornering you'd expect only on sports cars (torsion-bar suspension on the front wheels). And you'll still get years-ahead features that Valiant introduced (like an alternator instead of the usual generator). That's Valiant... a car that will go!

Your Authorized Plymouth-Valiant Dealer's Warranty against defects in material and workmanship on 1963 cars has been expanded to include parts replacement or repair for 5 years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first, on the engine block, head and internal parts; transmission case and internal parts (excluding manual clutch); torque converter, drive shaft, universal joints (excluding dust covers), rear axle and differential, and rear wheel bearings, provided the vehicle has been serviced at reasonable intervals according to the Plymouth-Valiant Certified Car Care schedule.

The Church

CHRIST'S PREDICTION ABOUT THE CHURCH, ITS ORIGIN AND EARLY GROWTH, AND SOME IDEALS FOR THE CHURCH REVEALED TO PAUL

Scripture—Matthew 16:15-17; 18:15-20; John 17:20-26; Acts
2:1-4, 58-47; 1 Corinthians 11:23-26; 12:12, 13, 27-31; Ephesians
2:11-22.

By N. SPEER JONES

THE GREEK WORD for church — ekklesia — originally meant a public assembly summoned by a herald. In the Greek text of the Old Testament it refers to an assembly of the Israelites. In the New Testament its meaning is the one common today, all those gathered together by their faith in Christ, knit together and in Him through the power of the Holy Spirit.

Christ Himself refers to the church only twice in our records of His public ministry.
These are in the assigned passages from Matthew.

In the first, if the passage is logically continued to include verse 18, the relationship of the church to Christ is illumined.
The key piece of the church is the fact that Christ is the Son of God. The building of this or circumstances, wherever "two or three are gathered in (Christ's) name."

The chapter from which our reference from John is taken is devoted entirely to Christ's important prayer to His Father on the night of His betrayal.
Most of this is devoted to the other members of His church.
Among the things He asks is a unity among His believers.
This unity takes the form of mutual love, patterned on the unity of the Father and Son.

This unity is elaborated in the passage from Ephesians:
There Paul makes it emphatic that both Jews and Gentiles can be one in Christ, joined in a temple in the Lord Himself.

Yet, although we are a unity, we must recognize the beauty of our varying gifts; we are not, and should not try to be, the same in anything except church will be done by Christ Himself. Death will have no effect on its existence or power.

In the other one of Christ's statements about the church, one of its most important practical functions, that of discipline, is stressed. The church's role here is not to take the first action, but the third. The first course of action regarding a sin is to be a personal attempt to work things out between the sinner and the one sinned against. If that doesn't work, a couple of others are to be called in. Only then is the grievance to be taken before the others in the church; if the fault is not mended, the church group carries through its discipline by considering the person as an outsider.

A second important aspect of the church is pointed out in this passage—it can be present anywhere, regardless of setting.

our love of God and Christ.
Paul dwells on this point at length in our passages from Corinthians.

The actual birth of the church is recorded in Acts 2:1-4. Not only is the church a spiritual entity rooted in Christ's Son-ship, but the very creation of His church is a divine act. With a mighty sound and sight, the disciples were suddenly invested with the Holy Spirit on the day of Pentecost. This gift of the Holy Spirit to the disciples was much the same as the descent of the Holy Spirit to Christ at His baptism.

Verses 38-41 deal with the first converts to the church.
Verses 42-47 deal with some of its early characteristics, and the passage from the 11th chapter of first Corinthians elaborates on the sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

Man Being Held On Abortion Count

GEORGETOWN, Ohio (AP) — Brown County Prosecutor Richard Liggett says he wants to confer with Judge John Houston before filing charges in the case of a man who admitted performing abortion.

Liggett's comments came Thursday in the arrest of 86-year-old Charles Evans, described as "a sort of unlicensed veterinarian" by Sheriff William Utter.

The sheriff said Evans signed a statement admitting he performed abortions regularly for the past 15 years.

He was arrested after two Warren County women entered a Dayton hospital for treatment of complications following abortions.
One woman identified Evans as the man who performed the operation.

Opinions Differ On Commercials

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Broadcasting Co. and American Broadcasting Co. differ with the president of the National Association of Broadcasters over his suggestion that cigarette commercials be revised to avoid any encouragement of smoking by youngsters.

The association president, former Gov. LeRoy Collins of Florida, contended in a recent speech that medical evidence suggested a health hazard in cigarette smoking.

Collins expressed a personal opinion that broadcasters should take the initiative in adopting corrective measures concerning commercials aimed at youngsters.

He said such reform could come through amendment of the trade group's Code of Good Practices.

The National Broadcasting Co. said in a statement: "Gov. Collins was not speaking for the National Broadcasting Co. in his recent observations on tobacco advertising and NBC does not share the views he stated on the subject."

The American Broadcasting Co. issued this statement: "ABC does not concur with Gov. Collins' view."

The Columbia Broadcasting System said: "This is a code matter and the established code organization is the proper forum for a discussion of it."

A meeting of the code committee is scheduled in Washington on Dec. 11.

Judge's Reply Still Awaited

CLEVELAND (AP) — A Sandusky County judge has until Dec. 21 to reply to a Coast Guard notice charging him with reckless and negligent operation of motorboat on the Sandusky River last summer.

Judge George D. Reinbolt of Fremont has not yet replied to a notice of violation served on him
Nov. 21, the 9th District Coast Guard Headquarters here said today. After his reply is received, the district commander will decide whether to assess a penalty, which could be a fine of up to $100. The judge could appeal any fine to the Coast Guard commandant.

Capt. Clement Cozad, commander of the Coast Guard's Marine Inspection Unit at Toledo, said Judge Reinbolt was accused of using his motorboat to tow two water skiers at a high rate of speed near Wightman's Grove on the Sandusky River Aug. 12.

The New Valiant

BEST ALL-AROUND COMPACT
ANYBODY HAS COME UP WITH YET!

You'd think that an amazing 5-year or 50,000-mile warranty on a new compact car would be enough to offer a value-minded buyer.
But it's not enough for Chrysler Corporation. In this new—completely restyled—'63 Valiant you'll get more than any other compact at its price (101 standard horsepower). You'll get the kind of cornering you'd expect only on sports cars (torsion-bar suspension on the front wheels). And you'll still get years-ahead features that Valiant introduced (like an alternator instead of the usual generator). That's Valiant... a car that will go!

5 YEAR
OR 50,000 MILE
WARRANTY*

*Your Authorized Plymouth-Valiant Dealer's Warranty against defects in material and workmanship on 1963 cars has been expanded to include parts replacement or repair for 5 years or 50,000 miles, whichever comes first, on the engine block, head and internal parts; transmission case and internal parts (excluding manual clutch); torque converter, drive shaft, universal joints (excluding dust covers), rear axle and differential, and rear wheel bearings, provided the vehicle has been serviced at reasonable intervals according to the Plymouth-Valiant Certified Car Care schedules.

Ten Face Federal Charges Of Changing Subsidy Forms

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Ten northwestern Ohio residents face federal charges of altering agriculture department documents to obtain increased wool subsidies. Harland Britz, assistant U. S. attorney, said documents were that wool was sold to the William H. Caster Co., Portland, Ind., in years other than when the wool was sold. This resulted in higher subsidy payments, Britz said.

AMA Delegates Adopt Measures

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Resolutions pledging doctors not to participate in any medicare program financed by Social Security have been found unacceptable by the American Medical Association. The AMA House of Delegates, a policy-making body, has instead adopted a resolution saying the association "will not be a willing party to any system detrimental to public welfare." The AMA has indicated it considers President Kennedy's medicare program detrimental. The substitute resolution, adopted before an AMA convention closed here Wednesday, says the House of Delegates will convene and decide what to do next if doctors are faced by a "serious threat to conscript them into involuntary servitude."

He added subsidies on wool change each year and agents for the Caster Company allegedly agreed to make sales appear to have been made in whichever year had the higher subsidy.

Named in the indictment returned by a federal grand jury Wednesday were three men identified as Caster agents, William Hotkamp, New Knoxville, Edgar Schmitz, New Easton, and Charles W. Samm, Ohio City.

Farmers who allegedly collaborated in the scheme were William L. Conradi, New Bremen; Edwin Hirschfeld, Chickasaw; A. A. Kolp, Ft. Recovery; Orville Genzel, Convoys; Walter Kiehl, Van Wert; and two New Knoxville farmers, Orville Prueter and Reuben Wierville.

Named as co-conspirators, but not indicted, were F. T. Eichenauer and Ben Bruening, both of Ft. Recovery.

In a similar case, Lren Holland of Larue was indicted for making false statements to obtain incentive payments under the National Wool Act.

Pickaway County Tax Receipts Are Listed

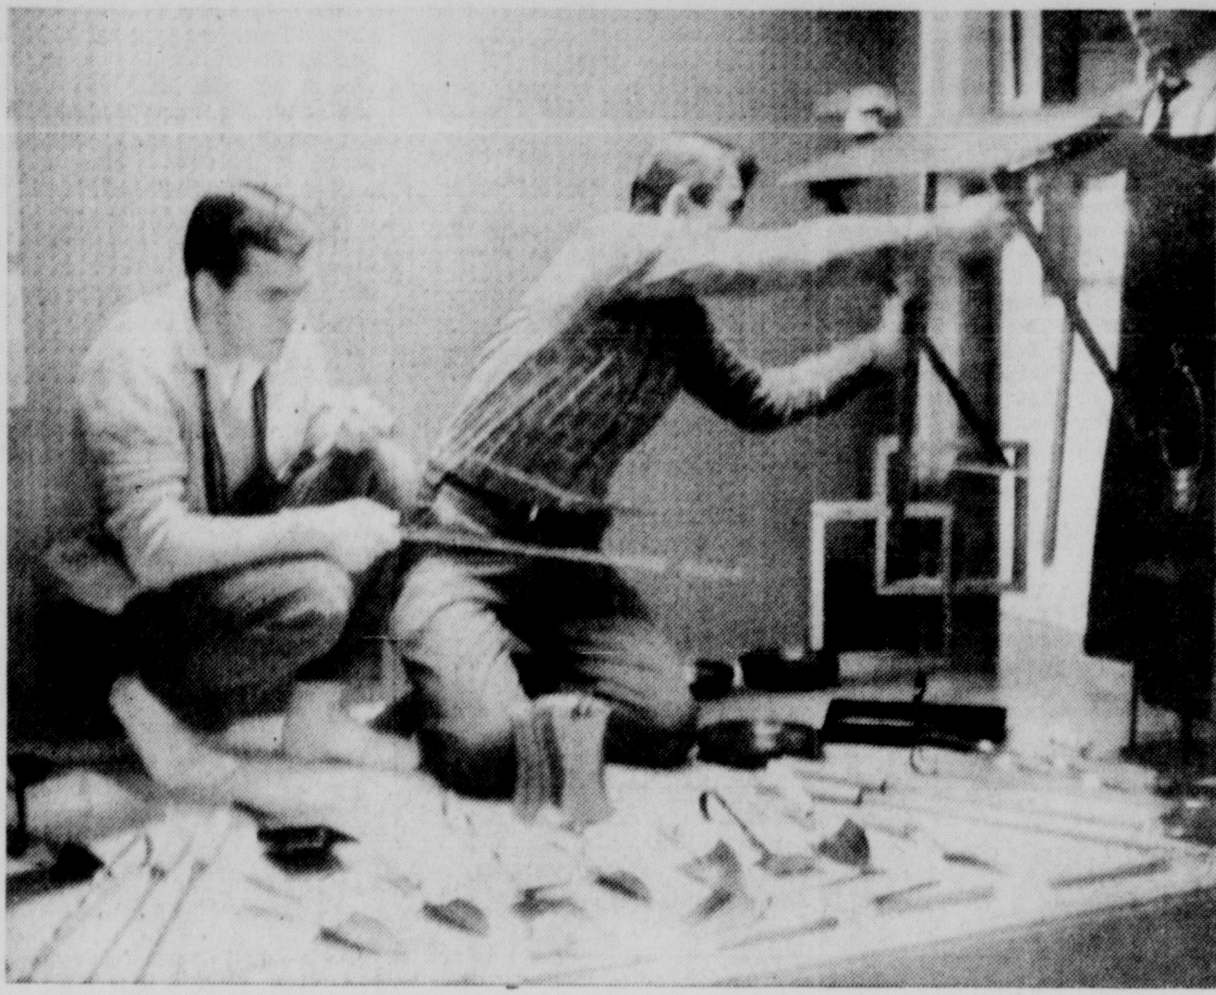

Motor vehicle tax collections in Pickaway County for the week ending Nov. 24 totaled $4,117.03, according to a release from the office of Joseph T. Ferguson, treasurer of the state of Ohio.

This brings the total for the fiscal year to $80,088.60. Prepaid tax receipts passed the $100,000 mark for the year beginning July 7 when $4,852.18 collected during the week ending Nov. 24 brought the yearly total to $100,840.69.

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — At 65 Harold Oliver weighs 120 pounds, about as much as he ever weighed. He's not tall. He looks like a nea. businessman who always keeps his desk clean.

But when he leaves The Associated Press today he carries a lot of American history into the future with him.

There were the trips, or days at the White House, with all the presidents from Coolidge to Eisenhower; poker with Roosevelt; the draft numbers in '40, world wars; the political conventions; trips with "Skullcap Charley" Bryan.

Washington was a different city when he went to work for The AP here in 1913. The street cars didn't run after midnight. At three in the morning when he had to roller-skate home through the quiet neighborhood, cops told him to cut out the clattering.

Even in The AP office news was sent around the world by telegraphers punching a Morse key. He did a lot of things in The AP office. He was a copy boy, he worked in the library, he learned to type and took dictation on the phone from reporters.

It was in that job that he typed out the first number picked in the draft in World War I. Years later, when he was a reporter phoning to a dictation boy of another generation, he phoned in the first number picked in the draft of World War II.

In between the two wars Oliver and the world grew up. He was part of the oath vigil on President Wilson. He made one trip with Coolidge. What sticks in his mind is that Coolidge had a big breakfast of steak and pancakes. He made a trip with Harding to cover a polo match when he didn't know anything about polo or much about Harding, either.

There was the night in 1924 when the car of Charles W. Bryan, governor of Nebraska and Democratic vice presidential candidate, collided on a campaign trip with a car containing two young couples. Bryan went to their homes, got their parents up, and lectured them for letting their daughters stay out so late.

Oliver slept in the same railroad car with Bryan who used to sleep in a black skullcap. Everybody called him "Skullcap Charley" but Bryan didn't know it.

In 1928, Oliver traveled the country with Al Smith in his campaign for the presidency. It was rugged Smith always had prepared speeches but threw them away. They interfered with what he wanted to say. Twelve newsmen went down sick. Oliver was laid up four days with nervous exhaustion.

One of his worst days was in 1937 when Roosevelt suddenly hit newsmen with 12,000 words of text on a plan to reorganize the Supreme Court. They had to start phoning in the story without knowing how many new justices Roosevelt had in mind.

By the time Oliver started to cover Roosevelt in 1936, going everywhere with him for two years, and playing poker with the President, too, he had headed the AP's congressional staffs for seven years. Then in 1938 he had to have a kidney removed. After that he made fewer trips, stayed mostly at the White House not only under Roosevelt but under Truman and Eisenhower, too.

His most memorable days in all these years was April 12, 1945 when Roosevelt died at Warm Springs, Ga. Oliver was there. In 1960, on a weekend covering the White House, he got a heart attack. Life for him slowed down after that. His doctor wouldn't let him get involved in excitement any more.

That was why his friends with whom he had worked so many years in The AP office couldn't give him a party when he retired today after 49 years' service longer than anyone now employed by the worldwide organization.

They arranged to gather around his desk at 3:30 p.m., give him a present, and wish a long and happy life. He and his wife, Myrtle, whom he married 37 years ago, have a house in Washington. But the doctor won't even let him rake up leaves. Nevertheless, he's looking forward to being home.

Latest Killing in Youngstown Differs from 81 Other Cases

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — The auto-bombing that killed Charles Cavallaro and his 11-year-old son six days ago differs in two ways from 81 other unsolved booby-trap bombings in this steel city of 175,000 since 1952.

For the first time federal law-enforcement machinery, at the personal urging of Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, is working to solve the crime.

Secondly, a public inclined to shrug off mayhem perpetrated by one gambler on another has been moved to anger and shame because two small boys were innocent victims in this newest bombing.

In addition to killing Thomas Cavallaro, 11, the bomb smashed the hip of his brother, Charles Jr., 12. The injured boy underwent surgery for five hours, was on the hospital critical list until Wednesday and may be crippled for life.

Whether the labors of the FBI and the aroused indignation of the community will keep this crime from going unsolved like the other 81 is conjectural. So far, the old picked up for questioning have wrapped themselves in the stony silence of the underworld.

Early in the investigation Police Chief William R. Golden pleaded: "If we could just get one break." It that break has come, the law enforcement people aren't talking about it.

Normal gambling and vice operations, estimated to produce a $4.5 million annual take here, have closed up shop temporarily, or are carrying on in a limited and inconspicuous way with only the most trusted clientele.

The FBI has set up a special telephone to take calls from informants between 8:15 a. m. and midnight, and some residents have called the number. Edward E. Hargett, agent in charge of the Cleveland FBI office and heading the investigation here, has promised complete protection to tipsters.

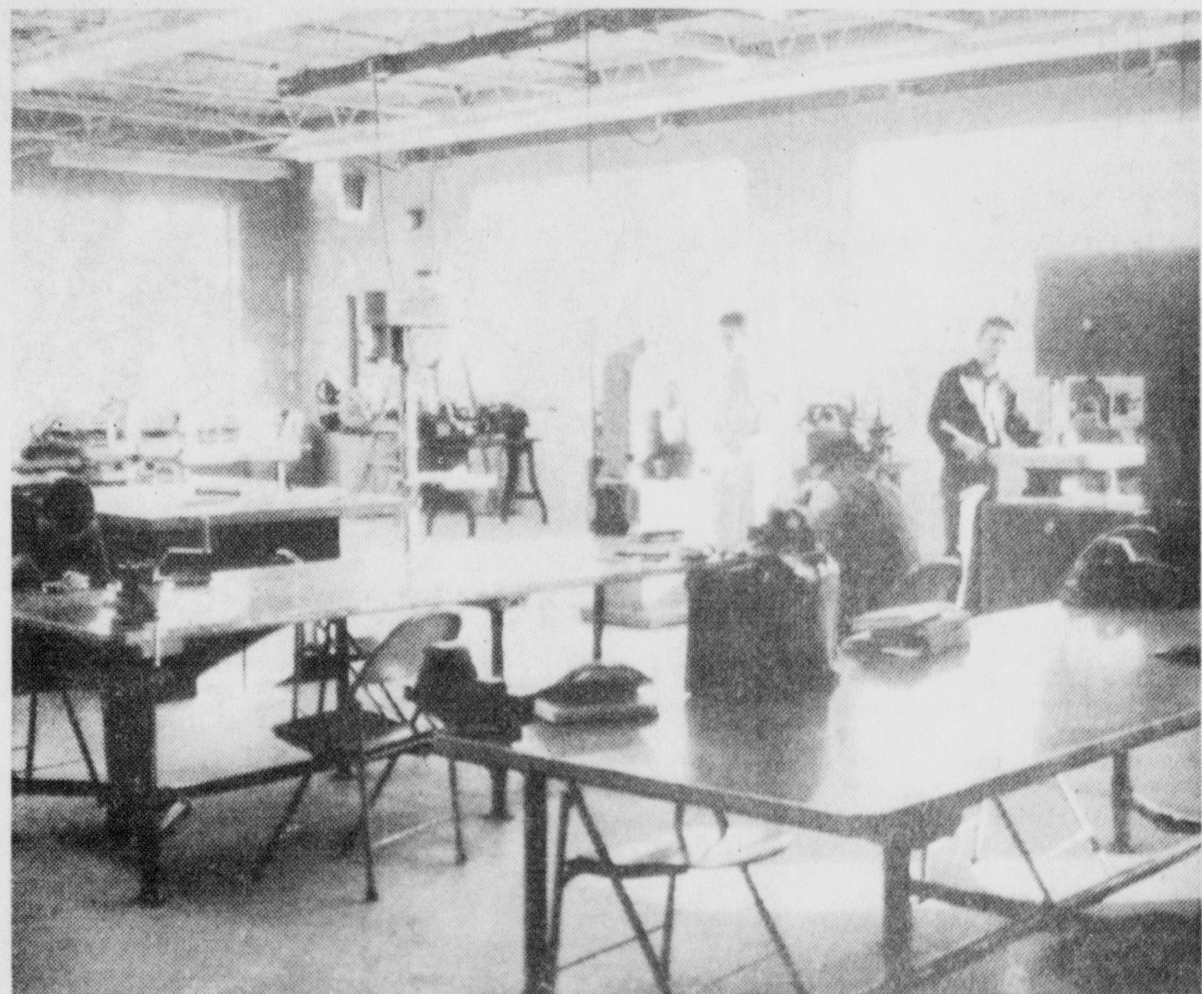

Coroner David Belinky issued an appeal to "decent people of Youngstown to wake up and help the authorities bring an end to these unspeakable atrocities."

Ten Face Federal Charges Of Changing Subsidy Forms

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Ten northwestern Ohio residents face federal charges of altering agriculture department documents to obtain increased wool subsidies.

Harland Britz, assistant U. S. attorney, said documents were that wool was sold to the William H. Caster Co., Portland, Ind., in years other than when the wool was sold. This resulted in higher subsidy payments, Britz said.

He added subsidies on wool change each year and agents for the Caster Company allegedly agreed to make sales appear to have been made in whichever year had the higher subsidy.

Named in the indictment returned by a federal grand jury Wednesday were three men identified as Caster agents, William Hotkamp, New Knoxville, Edgar Schmitz, New Easton, and Charles W. Samm, Ohio City.

Farmers who allegedly collaborated in the scheme were William L. Conradi, New Bremen; Edwin Hirschfeld, Chickasaw; A. A. Kolp, Ft. Recovery; Orville Gangel, Convoys; Walter Kiehl, Van Wert; and two New Knoxville farmers, Orville Prueter and Reuben Wierwille.

Named as co-conspirators, but not indicted, were F. T. Eichenauer and Ben Bruening, both of Ft. Recovery.

In a similar case, Lren Holland of Larue was indicted for making false statements to obtain incentive payments under the National Wool Act.

AMA Delegates Adopt Measures

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Resolutions pledging doctors not to participate in any medicare program financed by Social Security have been found unacceptable by the American Medical Association.

The AMA House of Delegates, a policy-making body, has instead adopted a resolution saying the association "will not be a willing party to any system detrimental to public welfare."

The AMA has indicated it considers President Kennedy's medicare program detrimental.

The substitute resolution, adopted before an AMA convention closed here Wednesday, says the House of Delegates will convene and decide what to do next if doctors are faced by a "serious threat to conscript them into involuntary servitude."

Major Leagues Will Return To One All-Star Tilt in '63

NEW YORK (AP)—The major leagues will return to one All-Star game in 1963. The game will be played on Tuesday, July 9, in Minneapolis-St. Paul.

The players, through their representatives, reluctantly agreed Thursday to drop the second All-Star game, at the request of the owners, who compromised by agreeing to relinquish all claim to All-Star receipts.

The players previously had received 60 per cent of the receipts, amounting to approximately $300,000. The other $200,000 went to the owners, who used the money, except for the commissioner's 5 per cent, to aid the minors.

Centralia Leads Area Cage Units

After nearly a month of competition, Centralia is leading Pickaway County Area basketball teams with a 4-0 record.

The cage season for schools that did not compete in football started Nov. 2. The second place position is held down by Williamsport, the team credited with the most games played. The Deers have won four while dropping two contests.

Kingston is third with a 3-2 slate and Monroe has won two and lost two.

Teays Valley, a class AA school formed from Scioto, Ashville, and Walnut schools, will not compete in the county league this year.

A member of the Darby Valley League, the Vikings have many of their non-league bouts scheduled with other class AA schools.

Following is a list of the area schools and their records to date.

Centralia	4	0
Teays Valley	1	0
Williamsport	4	2
Kingston	3	2
Monroe	2	2
Darby	1	3
Jackson	1	3

Major College Cage Season Opens Tonight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The new major college basketball season opens tonight, with some of the regular powers of the sport involved in the handful of games.

The schedule remains a handful only for 24 hours. Saturday night, the collegians are at it in force, topped by the new season's debut of Cincinnati's two-time defending NCAA champions.

Illinois, expected to be among the national as well as Big Ten leaders, is host to Butler. Rice is at Georgia Tech. Brigham Young at Oregon. Santa Clara at Southern California. Denver at UCLA. Colorado State U. at Washington State. Florida at Miami (Fla.) in tonight's key pairings.

The Cincinnati Bearcats, with four of their starting five back again, open at home Saturday against DePaul. Saturday's whopping schedule also includes such important tests as Purdue at Pitt, Virginia Tech at Kentucky, Davidson at Duke, Wichita at Wyoming, Utah at California, Georgia at North Carolina, Kansas State at Michigan State, Utah State at Ohio State, Wisconsin at Air Force, Southern Illinois vs. St. Bonaventure at Buffalo, Santa Clara at UCLA, Colorado State U. at Washington, and Lafayette at Princeton.

Ohio State, ranked No. 1 nationally the last two years although beaten both times by Cincinnati in the NCAA final, tries its hand at winning without All-American Jerry Lucas. Big Luke has graduated along with John Havlicek and Mel Nowell, the other two parts of the tremendous trio that triggered the Buckeye team the last three years.

George D. Widener's Amarullah ran third to Barbizon and Federal Hill in the 1956 Garden State but his Crewman won the 1962 race by six lengths over In The Pocket.

As a result of the compromise, the players will receive 95 per cent of the one game. The other 5 per cent goes to the commissioner's office for All-Star game expenses.

"We didn't want to buck the press and the public by pushing the second All-Star game down their throats any longer," said Bob Friend, of the Pittsburgh Pirates, the National League player representative.

Terms for the settlement were originally proposed by Commissioner Ford Frick, who was stoutly supported by Dan Topping, president of the New York Yankees.

Judge Robert Cannon, legal advisor of the players, who sat in on the meeting between the 20 player representatives and 20 club owners, said the players were very pleased with the new arrangement.

The two-All-Star game setup has been in existence four years. The players and owners also agreed to a change in the proportioning of the World Series money, adding the fifth place teams to the spoils. Each fifth place team, starting in 1963, will get 2 per cent of the World Series player pool.

Irish Major USC Roadblock

Trojans Are Favored, But ND on Rebound

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Southern California, attempting to nail down the national championship for the West Coast for the first time since 1939, goes against rebounding Notre Dame Saturday in the climax game on college football's wind-up weekend of the regular season.

The program also includes such tidbits as the colorful, traditional Army-Navy clash in Philadelphia and closing action for national powers Mississippi, Alabama and Oklahoma.

Mississippi and Alabama are expected to announce acceptance of bids to the Sugar and Orange Bowls, respectively, immediately after their games, which would complete the line-up for the major post-season classics.

Southern Cal already has secured the Rose Bowl berth opposite Wisconsin, but must get past the Fighting Irish to complete an unblemished season and retain solid control of the No. 1 spot in the nation.

Coch Joe Kuharich's lads from South Bend have stormed to four straight victories after a shaky start.

A crowd of about 85,000 is expected for the game in Los Angeles, while about 101,000 including President Kennedy are expected for the service classic in Philadelphia Stadium. The game also will get national television coverage (CBS, 1:30 p.m. (Eastern Standard Time)).

It's strictly a pick'em affair between the Cadets and the Mid-Idies, with President Kennedy expected to break tradition and go to midfield for the pre-game coin tossing.

Titles and bowl bids don't enter the picture for the colorful clash but Army pride does. Coach Paul Dietzel, hired this season to break Navy's string of three straight, has used his three-platoon magic to forge a 6-3 regular season record. Navy, seeking a record fourth straight over Army, is 4-5.

Mississippi, ranked third in the nation, is a solid favorite to close out an unbeaten, untied season against Mississippi State. Alabama, No. 5 with an 8-1 record, also is favored over a tough Auburn team.

Oklahoma, No. 8, already has the Orange Bowl spot and the Big Eight title and has little but prestige at stake against Oklahoma State.

Scouts from both the Gator and Gotham Bowls are expected to scout the Florida-Miami night game, while Texas Christian still has some bowl hopes going into its game with Southern Methodist.

In other Saturday games, Georgia Tech and Georgia meet in their traditional affair, Tennessee is at Vanderbilt, Rice at Baylor, Virginia at Rutgers, UCLA at Utah, Holy Cross at Boston College and Cincinnati at Houston.

Tiger Mat Squad Has 24 Candidates

Dave La Bonte has taken over as the varsity wrestling coach. Although La Bonte lists 24 grapplers on the roster, he noted that he is exceptionally disappointed with the turnout, especially from the freshman and sophomore classes.

Glen Plum is the only frosh and

The grappling mentor says that the wrestling team, should have a good year, but he notes that future prospects are dim at the present.

Returning lettermen and the weights at which they are expected to compete are Leroy Hagen, 165; Dever Jolly, 138; Tom Bivens, 133; Jack Cook, 120; Tim Mogan, 127; and Terry Kifer, 103.

Mogan was the central Ohio District champion in his class last year and Dever Jolly was the runner-up in the 138 pound class in the district competition.

New Buckeyes Set To Host Utah State

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A "new look" Ohio State team inaugurates the college basketball season at St. John arena Saturday when Utah State comes to town.

Coach Fred Taylor's Buckeyes, toast of the basketball world during Jerry Lucas' 3-year tenure, must go to the firing line without the Middletown phenom.

Graduation took Lucas, the 3-time All-America, and stars John Havlicek and Mel Nowell.

This trio figured prominently in the "golden era" that saw Ohio capture one NCAA title and narrowly miss two others.

Other dependables are Dick Reasbeck and Doug McDonald, who started most of the time a year ago.

Rounding out the top five are forward Jim Doughty, a terrific rebounder from Columbus, and guard Dick Taylor.

Billy Moran, Albie Pearson, Lee Thomas and Leon Wagner played 160 games for the Los Angeles last season.

The wrestling schedule is as follows:

Dec. 8 at Grove City
Dec. 15 Whitehall
Jan. 4 at Worthington
Jan. 12 Pleasant View Invitational
Jan. 19 Columbus Watsonson
Jan. 26 open
Feb. 2 Worthington Invitational
Feb. 8 at Ohio Blind
Feb. 16 Columbus East
Feb. 22-23 Sectionals
Mar. 1-2 District
Mar. 8-9 State

Waple, Thomas Selected Cage Co-Captains

Circleville hardwood mentor Paul Reiss announced yesterday that Clesson Thomas and Bob Waple had been named co-captains of the Tiger basketball team.

Thomas is a 6-2, 210 pound senior pivot man. The big Tiger cager, classed as a very tough rebounder, is working toward his second letter.

Working for his first letter, Waple, a 6-4, 180 pound senior, gained some good experience last year.

Reiss noted that basketball co-captain for the next Tiger varsity will be chosen by the coaching staff at the end of this season. The co-captains will be announced at the basketball banquet following the season.

Circleville plays a South Central Ohio League game at Hillsboro tonight, and opens the home season with Chillicothe tomorrow in the Mill St. gymnasium.

Baseball Veteran Red Kress Dead

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Ralph (Red) Kress, who spent more than 25 years in the major leagues as a player and coach, is dead of a heart attack.

Kress, 55, was on the coaching staff of the New York Mets last season. His manager, Casey Stengel, said he was "the hardest working coach I ever saw" and "a great inspiration."

Kress died late Wednesday night at his home in suburban Canoga Park. He had taken an annual physical checkup only a week before and appeared to be in good health.

Kress played in the majors a dozen years, first with the old St. Louis Browns in 1927 and later with the Chicago White Sox, Washington Senators, Detroit Tigers and New York Giants. He appeared in 1,391 games, mostly as a shortstop, and had a career batting average of .286.

Leo Burke, who hit two key home runs for the Los Angeles Angels in September, was the 1962 homer king in the American Association. He hit 27 four baggers for Dallas-Ft. Worth.

Giants Are in Good Position To Nail Down Eastern Crown

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The New York Giants, shrugging off the pressure-packed schedule that exhausted them a year ago, face the Chicago Bears in Chicago Sunday needing only a victory in their final three games to nail down the National Football League's Eastern Conference title for the second straight year.

In winning the crown in 1961, the Giants played under the gun until the final Sunday while the Green Bay Packers clinched their title two weeks before the season's end and were fresh and relaxed in whopping the Giants 37-0 in the title game.

Now the shoe is on the other foot. Green Bay (10-1) has only a one-game lead in the West over the Detroit Lions (9-2) while New York, also 9-2, is 2½ over second-place Cleveland (6-4-1). The Packers are heavily favored to whip the Baltimore Colts (5-6) at home.

This week's picks (last week: 6 correct, 2 wrong, 1 tie; season: 71 correct, 39 wrong, 5 ties):

New Coach Sought

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) — Franklin High School officials have started a hunt for a new football coach following Robert L. Adams' resignation.

Adams resigned Thursday after a season in which his team had a 1-9 won-lost mark. He was an assistant at Fairfield two years before taking over as head coach five years ago.

Cleveland over Dallas—Quarterback Frank Ryan and fullback Jimmy Brown in high gear now while Cowboys strengthened with return of quarterback Eddie LeBaron.

Philadelphia over Washington—Eagles back on beam with Pete Retliff and Frank Budd giving Tommy McDonald some help in pass-receiving department.

Pittsburgh over St. Louis—Both have quarterback problems. Ed Brown running Steelers this week for beleaguered Bobby Layne while Cards just can't get started either with Sam Etcheverry or young Charley Johnson.

Indians Deal Nearly Final

CLEVELAND (AP) — The American League will be asked to put its stamp of approval today on the purchase of the Cleveland Indians by a 19-man syndicate.

Final details of the deal were completed Thursday with formation of the Cleveland Indians, Inc. Stockholders of the old Cleveland Indians Baseball Co. approved completion of the $6 million transaction which puts General Manager Gabe Paul in a dominant role.

Although Paul and his associates do not have control of the organization, Paul has bought about 20 per cent of the 6,000 outstanding shares, becoming the largest single stockholder. He becomes president and treasurer of the new corporation while continuing in the post of general manager.

William R. Daley continues as board chairman. Daley sold more than half his personal holdings and holds less than 18 per cent, but with his associates he controls about 70 per cent of the voting stock.

Associated with Paul and holding about 10 per cent of the stock are A. Ray Smith, owner of the Tulsa, Okla., Oilers of the Texas League, and Grayle Howlett, a former owner of the Tulsa club and now ticket sales director for the Indians.

The American League is meeting in New York.

Major Leagues Will Return To One All-Star Tilt in '63

NEW YORK (AP)—The major leagues will return to one All-Star game in 1963. The game will be played on Tuesday, July 9, in Minneapolis-St. Paul.

The players, through their representatives, reluctantly agreed Thursday to drop the second All-Star game, at the request of the owners, who compromised by agreeing to relinquish all claim to All-Star receipts.

The players previously had re-

Centralia Leads Area Cage Units

After nearly a month of competition, Centralia is leading Pickaway County Area basketball teams with a 4-0 record.

The cage season for schools that did not compete in football started Nov. 2. The second place position is held down by Williamsport, the team credited with the most games played. The Deers have won four while dropping two contests.

Kingston is third with a 3-2 slate and Monroe has won two and lost two.

The only undefeated team in the area besides the Centralia Bulldogs is the Teays Valley aggregate. They won their first start.

Teays Valley, a class AA school formed from Scioto, Ashville, and Walnut schools, will not compete in the county league this year.

A member of the Darby Valley League, the Vikings have many of their non-league bouts scheduled with other class AA schools.

Following is a list of the area schools and their records to date. Logan Elm has not opened their season yet, playing their first tilt tomorrow when they host Centralia.

Major College Cage Season Opens Tonight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The new major college basketball season opens tonight, with some of the regular powers of the sport involved in the handful of games.

The schedule remains a handful only for 24 hours. Saturday night, the collegians are at it in force, topped by the new season's debut of Cincinnati's two-time defending NCAA champions.

Illinois, expected to be among the national as well as Big Ten leaders, is host to Butler, Rice is at Georgia Tech, Brigham Young at Oregon, Santa Clara at Southern California, Denver at UCLA, Colorado State U. at Washington State, and Florida at Miami (Fla.) in tonight's key pairings.

The Cincinnati Bearcats, with four of their starting five back again, open at home Saturday against Denauw. Saturday's whopping schedule also includes such important tests as Purdue at Pitt, Virginia Tech at Kentucky, Davidson at Duke, Wichita at Wyoming, Utah at California, Georgia at North Carolina, Kansas State at Michigan State, Utah State at Ohio State, Wisconsin at Air Force, Southern Illinois vs. St. Bonaventure at Buffalo, Santa Clara at UCLA, Colorado State U. at Washington, and Lafayette at Princeton.

Ohio State, ranked No. 1 nationally the last two years although beaten both times by Cincinnati in the NCAA final, tries its hand at winning without All-America Jerry Lucas. Big Luke has graduated along with John Havlicek and Mel Nowell, the other two parts of the tremendous trio that triggered the Buckeye team the last three years.

George D. Widener's Amarullah ran third to Barbizon and Federal Hill in the 1956 Garden State but his crewman won the 1962 race by six lengths over In The Pocket.

ceived 60 per cent of the receipts, amounting to approximately $300,000. The other $200,000 went to the owners, who used the money, except for the commissioner's 5 per cent, to aid the miners.

As a result of the compromise, the players will receive 95 per cent of the one game. The other 5 per cent go to the commissioner's office for All-Star game expenses.

"We didn't want to buck the press and the public by pushing the second All-Star game down their throats any longer," said Bob Friend, of the Pittsburgh Pirates, the National League player representative.

Terms for the settlement were originally proposed by Commissioner Ford Frick, who was stoutly supported by Dan Topping, president of the New York Yankees.

Judge Robert Cannon, legal advisor of the players, who "at in on the meeting between the 20 player representatives and 20 club owners, said the players were very pleased with the new arrangement.

The two-All-Star game setup has been in existence four years. The players and owners also agreed to a change in the proportioning of the World Series money, adding the fifth place teams to the spoils. Each fifth place team, starting in 1963, will get 2 per cent of the World Series player pool.

Irish Major USC Roadblock

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Southern California, attempting to nail down the national championship for the West Coast for the first time since 1939, goes against rebounding Notre Dame Saturday in the climax game on college football's wind-up weekend of the regular season.

The program also includes such tidbits as the colorful, traditional Army-Navy clash in Philadelphia and closing action for national powers Mississippi, Alabama and Oklahoma.

Mississippi and Alabama are expected to announce acceptance of bids to the Sugar and Orange Bowls, respectively, immediately after their games, which would complete the line-up for the major post-season classics.

Southern Cal already has secured the Rose Bowl berth opposite Wisconsin, but must get past the Fighting Irish to complete an unblemished season and retain solid control of the No. 1 spot in the nation.

The Trojans rule a one-touch-down favorite to turn back the Irish, but a form reversal is a decided possibility.

Coach Joe Kuharich's lads from South Bend have stormed to four straight victories after a shaky start.

A crowd of about 85,000 is expected for the game in Los Angeles, while about 101,000 including President Kennedy are expected for the service classic in Philadelphia Stadium. The game also will get national television coverage (CBS, 1:30 p.m. (Eastern Standard Time).

It's strictly a pick'em affair between the Cadets and the Mid-dies, with President Kennedy expected to break tradition and go to midfield for the pre-game coin tossing.

Titles and bowl bids don't enter the picture for the colorful clash but Army pride does. Coach Paul Dietzel, hired this season to break Navy's string of three straight, has used his three-platoon magic to forge a 6-3 regular season record. Navy, seeking a record fourth straight over Army, is 4-5.

Mississippi, ranked third in the nation, is a solid favorite to close out an unbeaten, untied season against Mississippi State. Alabama, No. 5 with an 8-1 record, also is favored over a tough Auburn team.

Oklahoma, No. 8, already has the Orange Bowl spot and the Big Eight title and has little but prestige at stake against Oklahoma State.

Scouts from both the Gator and Gotham Bowls are expected to scout the Florida-Miami night game, while Texas Christian still has some bowl hopes going into its game with Southern Methodist.

In other Saturday games, Georgia Tech and Georgia meet in their traditional affair, Tennessee is at Vanderbilt Rice at Baylor, Virginia at Rutgers, UCLA at Utah, Holy Cross at Boston College and Cincinnati at Houston.

Tiger Mat Squad Has 24 Candidates

The Circleville wrestling team opens the 1962 season 2 p. m. Dec. 8 at Grove City with six returning lettermen on the roster.

Dave La Bonte has taken over as the varsity wrestling coach. Although La Bonte lists 24 grapplers on the roster, he noted that he is exceptionally disappointed with the turnout, especially from the freshman and sophomore classes.

Glen Plum is the only frosh and

New Buckeyes Set To Host Utah State

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A "new look" Ohio State team inaugurates the college basketball season at St. John arena Saturday when Utah State comes to town.

Coach Fred Taylor's Buckeyes, toast of the basketball world during Jerry Lucas' 3-year tenure, must go to the firing line without the Middletown phenom.

Graduation took Lucas, the 3-time All-America, and stars John Havlicek and Mel Nowell.

This trio figured prominently in the "golden era" that saw Ohio capture one NCAA title and narrowly miss two others.

Gary Bradds, Lucas' replacement, is counted on to provide the scoring punch as the Bucks shoot for a fourth straight Big Ten crown.

Other dependables are Dick Reasbeck and Doug McDonald, who started most of the time a year ago.

Rounding out the top five are forward Jim Doughty, a terrific rebounder from Columbus, and guard Dick Taylor.

Billy Moran, Albie Pearson, Lee Thomas and Leon Wagner played 160 games for the Los Angeles last season.

Charles Martin is the lone prospect from the sophomore class.

The grappling mentor says that the wrestling team, should have a good year, but he notes that future prospects are dim at the present.

Returning lettermen and the weights at which they are expected to compete are Leroy Hagen, 165; Dever Jolly, 138; Tom Bivens, 133; Jack Cook, 120; Tim Mogan, 127; and Terry Kifer, 103.

Mogan was the central Ohio District champion in his class last year and Dever Jolly was the runner-up in the 138 pound class in the district competition.

Most of the mat-hopefuls are experiencing a weight problem and are working hard to get down to their respective classes.

Howard Fletcher, however, has the somewhat unusual problem of gaining weight. He is several pounds shy of the 185 pounds he must carry.

The weights listed after each grapplers name are not actual weights of the students, but are weight classes in which he is expected to compete.

The wrestling schedule is as follows.

Dec. 8 at Grove City
Dec. 15 Whitehall
Jan. 4 at Worthington
Jan. 12 Pleasant View Invitational
Jan. 19 Columbus Waterson

Waple, Thomas Selected Cage Co-Captains

Circleville hardwood mentor Paul Reiss announced yesterday that Clesson Thomas and Bob Waple had been named co-captains of the Tiger basketball team.

Thomas is a 6-2, 210 pound senior pivot man. The big Tiger eager, classed as a very tough rebounder, is working toward his second letter.

Working for his first letter, Waple, a 6-4, 180 pound senior, gained some good experience last year.

Reiss noted that basketball co-captain for the next Tiger varsity will be chosen by the coaching staff at the end of this season. The co-captains will be announced at the basketball banquet following the season.

Circleville plays a South Central Ohio League game at Hillsboro tonight, and opens the home season with Chillicothe tomorrow in the Mill St. gymnasium.

Baseball Veteran Red Kress Dead

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Ralph (Red) Kress, who spent more than 25 years in the major leagues as a player and coach, is dead of a heart attack.

Kress, 55, was on the coaching staff of the New York Mets last season. His manager, Casey Stengel, said he was "the hardest working coach I ever saw" and "a great inspiration."

Kress died late Wednesday night at his home in suburban Canoga Park. He had taken an annual physical checkup only a week before and appeared to be in good health.

Kress played in the majors a dozen years, first with the old St. Louis Browns in 1927 and later with the Chicago White Sox, Washington Senators, Detroit Tigers and New York Giants. He appeared in 1,391 games, mostly as a shortstop, and had a career batting average of .286.

Leo Burke, who hit two key home runs for the Los Angeles Angels in September, was the 1962 homer king in the American Association. He hit 27 four baggers for Dallas-Ft. Worth.

Giants Are in Good Position To Nail Down Eastern Crown

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The New York Giants, shrugging off the pressure-packed schedule that exhausted them a year ago, face the Chicago Bears in Chicago Sunday needing only a victory in their final three games to nail down the National Football League's Eastern Conference title for the second straight year.

In winning the crown in 1961, the Giants played under the gun until the final Sunday while the Green Bay Packers clinched their title two weeks before the season's end and were fresh and relaxed in whumping the Giants 37-0 in the title game.

Now the shoe is on the other foot. Green Bay (10-1) has only a one-game lead in the West over the Detroit Lions (9-2) while New York, also 9-2, is 2½ over second-place Cleveland (6-4-1). The Packers are heavily favored to whip the Baltimore Colts (5-6) at home.

This week's picks (last week, 6 correct, 2 wrong, 1 tie; season: 71 correct, 39 wrong, 5 ties):

NFL

New York over Chicago—Giants improved running game has edge on so-so ground defense of Bears and Y. A. Tittle, Del Shorner and Frank Gifford have edge in air over Billy Wade, Johnny Morris, Mike Ditka and Co.

Green Bay over Los Angeles—Packers have had 10-day rest since thumping by Lions and have no more winning streak to worry about. Their offense and defense too strong for revamped Rams.

Detroit over Baltimore—Lions healthy again and rarin' to go after Green Bay's title if the Packers should slip. Colts will be tough to try to make up for 57-0 loss to Bears last week, but Detroit's defense will not budge.

Cleveland over Dallas—Quarterback Frank Ryan and fullback Jimmy Brown in high gear now while Cowboys strengthened with return of quarterback Eddie LeBaron.

Philadelphia over Washington—Eagles back on beam with Pete Retliff and Frank Budd giving Tommy McDonald some help in pass-receiving department.

Pittsburgh over St. Louis—Both have quarterback problems. Ed Brown running Steelers this week for beleaguered Bobby Layne while Cards just can't get started either with Sam Etcheverry or young Charley Johnson.

AFL

New York over Boston — Patriots defense may be tough tonight, but Titans will be at their best since early season with quarterback Johnny Green having decided edge on Boston's Tom Yew-cie.

Houston over Denver—George Blanda still has plenty left to get Oilers third straight Eastern title while Broncos' Frank Ripucka needs more running help.

Dallas over Buffalo—Too much Abner Haynes and Len Dawson for Bills, whose great ground game led by Cookie Gilchrist not enough for well-stacked Texans.

Oakland over San Diego—All Raiders have needed for past six games was one sustained offensive and Chargers' defense is ripe for such an effort.

New Coach Sought

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) — Franklin High School officials have started a hunt for a new football coach following Robert L. Adams' resignation.

Adams resigned Thursday after a season in which his team had a 1-9 won-lost mark. He was an assistant at Fairfield two years before taking over as head coach five years ago.

Associated with Paul and holding about 10 per cent of the stock are A. Ray Smith, owner of the Tulsa, Okla., Oilers of the Texas League, and Grayle Howlett, a former owner of the Tulsa club and now ticket sales director for the Indians.

The American League is meeting in New York.

Indians Deal Nearly Final

CLEVELAND (AP) — The American League will be asked to put its stamp of approval to-day on the purchase of the Cleveland Indians by a 19-man syndicate.

Final details of the deal were completed Thursday with formation of the Cleveland Indians, Ind. Stockholders of the old Cleveland Indians Baseball Co. approved completion of the $6 million transaction which puts General Manager Gabe Paul in a dominant role.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC
SALE OF REAL ESTATE
In pursuance of the order of the Probate Court of Pickaway County, Ohio, I will offer for sale at public auction on the 10th day of December, 1962, at 2:00 o'clock P.M. EST., at the front door of the Court House at Circleville, Ohio, the following described real estate situated in the Village of Williamsport, County of Pickaway, State of Ohio:

Being Lot Number Sixteen (16) in Samuel O. Hunsicker's First Addition to the Village of Williamsport in Pickaway County and State of Ohio, and fronting east on Pike Street in said Addition, and being the same premises that were conveyed to John Wardell by J. M. Hunsicker and O'Connor and husband by deed dated January 6, 1906, and also being the same premises devised under the last will and testament of John Wardell, deceased, to Mary A. Grace for life and then to her heirs.

Being the same premises deeded to W. D. Heiskell by Frank W. Grace and Mary E. Grace, husband and wife by deed dated May 1943 and recorded in Deed Volume 132, Page 623 of the Pickaway County Record of Deeds.

Said real estate is appraised at Five Thousand Five Hundred ($5,500.00), and must be sold for not less than two-thirds of its appraised value and the terms of sale are ten per cent (10 per cent) in cash immediately after said sale. The remainder of said purchase price in cash or on delivery (30) days or upon delivery of deed.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Not very long ago practically every boy had his "canyon" — a magical place that in a twinkling became OEA Calls . . .

One goal calls for requiring the state to make the retirement payments on time and permits any teacher-member of the system to bring suit to force compliance.

The other calls for recovering interest lost because of the failure of the state government to make the retirement system payments on time last November and last March. It has been estimated that the teachers retirement system lost $208,825 in interest because of the late payments.

Also included in the 27-point programs was one calling for a state minimum salary schedule for teachers. It would call for a teacher with a bachelor's degree to receive $4,000 to start, with 10 annual increases to a maximum of $6,000. A teacher with a master degree would receive a salary range of $4,400 to $6,600 over an 11-year step.

In addition, the OEA voted to support the budget requests of the State Board of Education which asks for a $130 million increase in state appropriations to school districts in the next two years.

Also approved with no opposition was a point asking for amendment of the so-called "miror" of state law which an OEA study said prevented teachers from effectively instructing students about the evils of communism. The present law requires courses in state and national government and history before teachers can go into other fields.

The Rev. Bob Richards, former Olympic pole vault champion, is to address the convention tonight, and Robinson T. Guller, assistant superintendent of West Carrollton School, is to be installed as president of the 78,000-member association. He succeeds Carroll F. Conley, a Warren guidance counselor.

MCA Head Works Long Hours, Stands Clear of Publicity

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The list of film czar Eric Johnston's honors and achievements runs 31 lines in the encyclopedic Motion Picture Almanac.

This contrasts with another entry, reprinted in its entirety: "Wasserman, Lew: president, Music Corporation of America, headquarters, Beverly Hills, Calif."

An agent's mania for anonymity remains with Wasserman though he has shifted from heading show business' largest talent agency to command of a vast entertainment empire with its base in Universal City. He is never seen at big parties. He declines to be photographed. His public pronouncements are rare.

He is a rangy man with a well-combed shock of greying black hair. A prodigious worker, he begins his day at 6 a.m., talking on the telephone to New York. How much time does he spend at his office?

"My associates say too little, my wife says too much," Wasserman answered with a grin. It amounts to 10-12 hours, and the paper work goes home with him. Weekends are often spent in Palm Springs looking at movies — "You can never see all the film you need in this business."

Wasserman is 49. He worked his way up through the rough and tumble business of peddling talent and at 33 was handed the reins of MCA by founder Jules Stein. Wasserman led the firm into television filming, then helped MCA run through anti-trust obstacles to the goal of merger with Universal Pictures-Decca Records.

The new combine is viewed by many, including Hollywood unions, as the great hope for restoring the American film industry to its previous eminence. Wasserman's office indicates that hope is well-placed. It is filled with photos and models—he calls it "my erector set"—of expansion plans for the studio. Among the projects: A 14-story office building, new commissary and wardrobe buildings, four new stages to add to the present 29.

De Jarnette reportedly is traveling with a 28-year-old girl friend. He is charged with robbing two banks in Louisville, Ky., and one in Cincinnati, and reportedly has vowed he would not be taken alive.

De Jarnette, 41, was described as white, 5-feet-11, 135-150 pounds, with brown hair and brown eyes. He has a tattoo of a cartoon on the inside of his left forearm.

Dangerous Gunman Placed on FBI Most Wanted List

WASHINGTON (AP)—The FBI today placed John Kinchloe De Jarnette on its Ten Most Wanted fugitives list.

The FBI described De Jarnette as a highly dangerous gunman and bank robber and said he is charged with three bank robberies in a 42-day period which netted him almost $100,000.

"My associates say too little, my wife says too much," Wasserman answered with a grin. It amounts to 10-12 hours, and the paper work goes home with him.

Weekends are often spent in Palm Springs looking at movies. "You can never see all the film you need in this business."

Wasserman is 49. He worked his way up through the rough and tumble business of peddling talent and at 33 was handed the reins of MCA by founder Jules Stein. Wasserman led the firm into television, film, and helped MCA run through anti-trust obstacles to the goal of merger with Universal Pictures-Decca Records.

The new combine is viewed by many, including Hollywood unions, as the great hope for restoring the American film industry to its previous eminence. Wasserman's office indicates that hope is well-placed. It is filled with photos and models—he calls it "my erector set"—of expansion plans for the studio. Among the projects: A 14-story office building, new commissary and wardrobe buildings, four new stages to add to the present 29.

MCA has announced that it will back Broadway shows to help provide film properties. Wasserman disclosed that the company will also seek out talent at universities and in Little Theaters.

As a talent agency, MCA was long assailed for supposedly charging excessive fees for top stars. Now Wasserman is on the buying, not the selling end. I asked him if he thought stars were overpaid.

"I don't think there's such a thing as overpaying talent—as long as they earn what they get," he said.
